Eight blocks missing from structure

Panola County Commissioners will discuss the eight concrete sidewalk blocks that went missing from the structure, the result of vandalism, during their meeting for a month of above-average rain.

The meeting is scheduled for 9 a.m. Tuesday in the board room on the second floor of the Panola County Courthouse in Carthage. The commissioners will discuss the replacement of the sidewalk blocks, which would be the responsibility of the City of Carthage, according to County Engineer Randy Johnson.

The final decision on whether to replace the blocks will be made at the meeting.

Three bills will be addressed in the Senate on Tuesday, according to a Senate spokesperson.

The bills are:

- SB 4, which would allow the local government to impose a tax on motor vehicles.
- SB 5, which would allow the local government to impose a tax on property.
- SB 6, which would allow the local government to impose a tax on sales.

The Senate will vote on the bills during its regular session.

ROLLBACK LAWSUIT ANNULLED BY COUNTY

Panola County Commissioners have agreed to withdraw the lawsuit against the state of Texas over the rollback of property tax rates. The lawsuit was filed in 2004 and was dismissed by the state district court in 2007.

The lawsuit was filed by the Panola County Commissioners Court against the state of Texas, alleging that the state had不合理地 increased property tax rates for the county.

The suit was dismissed by the court after the state of Texas agreed to pay the county $1 million.

A successful outcome of the lawsuit would have resulted in a significant increase in the county's property tax revenue.

Offense, defense accept challenge in 6-5 win

Dogs stun Texas High in seventh inning

Dogs and Texas High both came into the game with 4-2 records. Texas High was looking to snap their two-game losing streak while the Dogs were looking for their seventh win of the season. Both teams knew it was going to be a tough game, but they were ready to accept the challenge.

In the seventh inning, the Dogs were down 5-1. It was looking like it was going to be a long day for the Dogs. However, they didn't give up. They fought back and got three runs in the inning. It was a big boost for the team.

The Dogs scored two runs in the inning to tie the game at 5-5. It was an exciting moment for the team. They were still in the game and they knew they had a chance.

After the Dogs tied the game, they went on to win 6-5. It was a great win for the team and they were happy to have come out on top.

The Dogs played well throughout the game. They had great pitching and hitting. They didn't let the pressure get to them and they fought back when they needed to.

It was a great game and the Dogs were happy to have won. They were looking forward to their next game and they knew they had to keep playing well to have a chance of winning.

Davis to Van Horn: 'It ain't my first rodeo'

Panola's bossman has final word.

Shorty after the Dogs defeated Texas High to snap the Bulldogs' losing streak, Van Horn spoke to the press. He was looking forward to the upcoming games and he was excited to see what the Dogs could do.

Van Horn said, "We've been playing some good baseball lately. We're looking forward to playing some good teams and we're going to give it our best shot." He was looking forward to seeing how the Dogs would perform against some tough opponents.

Van Horn has been a coach for many years and he knows what it takes to win. He's seen it all and he knows how to handle the pressure. He's looking forward to seeing how the Dogs will respond to the challenge.

The Bulldogs are looking forward to the upcoming games and they're ready to accept the challenge. They're looking forward to seeing how they can perform against some tough opponents.
