National support made difference, soldier says

Return brings end of waiting

By LINDA PORTER

Panic in 1990 came easy way that can be seen in the Panola County Courthouse. In 1990, the courthouse was busy, with several soldiers leaving for various overseas destinations. Today, the courthouse is quiet, with only a few soldiers present. The few soldiers present are either there to attend a court hearing or to pick up mail. The courthouse is now a place where people can go to get a quiet break from their busy lives.

Panola County appears stable
Local economy shows positive indications

After six months, many local economic indicators that had a direct influence on the Panola County economy are pointing toward a recovery, if not expanding economic trends.

The Texas Workforce Commission indicated that the unemployment rate in Panola County during the first quarter of 1991 was 5.1 percent, which is slightly lower than the national rate of 5.3 percent. The county's unemployment rate is among the lowest in the state.

The Panola County Economic Development Board reported that the county's unemployment rate during the first quarter of 1991 was 5.1 percent, which is slightly lower than the national rate of 5.3 percent. The county's unemployment rate is among the lowest in the state.

Center plans forty-hour blood drive

The Panola County Center plans to host a forty-hour blood drive in celebration of its 40th anniversary on April 30. The drive will be held from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. at the Center's headquarters. The drive is expected to collect between 400 and 500 units of blood.

Nursing home meeting draws possible buyers

A meeting was held at the Panola County Nursing Home in Conroe to discuss the possible sale of the facility. The meeting was attended by representatives from several local hospitals and healthcare providers.

City plans to turn minimum bid

The Panola County Commission has approved the purchase of land for a new city park. The land was sold for $30,000, which is below the minimum bid of $40,000.

Dixie 9-10 all-stars announced

A group of Dixie 9-10 all-stars are in the works and will begin some tournament action this week. The National League will be a part of the national tournament area this week that includes a large number of teams competing for a spot in the World Series. No official list of teams has been announced as of yet, but there is a chance that at least one team from Texas will be included in the tournament field. The tournament will be held in a different location each year, and the weather and conditions can play a big role in the final outcome. The tournament is a great opportunity for young baseball players to showcase their skills and compete at a high level. The teams will play in a variety of formats, with each team competing in a different pool of opponents. The tournament is a great way for teams to bond and work together, and the top teams will move on to the next round of play. The tournament is a great opportunity for young baseball players to compete at a high level and develop their skills. Rat Pack falters

Cain’s, Generals keep hopes alive

Cain Stephenson and Pedra Jones were among the lineup of players for the Generals during the Dixie Association baseball season. Stephenson, a pitcher, led the team in victories with a 4-1 record. Jones, a catcher, had a batting average of .350. The Generals finished in second place with a 12-4 record.

Dixie 13

Dixie 13 closed out the season with a 10-7 record. The team was led by their three stars: Jerry Jones, Bob Smith, and Mike Williams. Jones hit .375 and Smith hit .350. Williams was the team’s top pitcher with a 7-3 record.

Dixie 11-12 baseball standings

Dixie 11-12 finished in third place with a 10-8 record. The team was coached by Bob Johnson. Johnson’s team was led by underclassmen who showed promise for the future.

Dixie 15-16 baseball standings

Dixie 15-16 was in fourth place with a 9-9 record. The team was coached by Bob White. White’s team was led by seniors who were looking forward to their last year of high school baseball.
