A lot has happened since the last issue. After all, it's summer time and you can tell by the size of the school's attendance, a lot of students are taking their vacations. However, there is still some news to report. The P.E. Department is planning a few activities for the students to enjoy during the summer months. The students will be playing more team sports and participating in some outdoor activities. The department is also planning to host a few guest speakers to inspire the students to pursue their interests and dreams. The students are looking forward to these events and are preparing for them with excitement.

Oil and gas news

A few words about the oil and gas industry in Texas. It is an important part of our economy and plays a crucial role in our daily lives. With the increase in the price of oil and gas, the industry is growing and companies are expanding their operations. The companies are investing in new technologies to improve efficiency and reduce costs. The industry is also focusing on sustainability and is exploring new ways to reduce its environmental impact. Overall, the industry is doing well and is expected to continue growing in the future.

Shelbyville ends Beckville odyssey

Shelbyville looks very happy after winning the bi-district game with Beckville. The team had been working hard all season and was determined to reach the state tournament. The team's victory was met with great excitement and celebration. The players were all smiles as they celebrated their success.

Chits win in eighth by 11-10

Chits were victorious in the eighth inning, winning by a score of 11-10. The team had been trailing throughout most of the game, but in the final inning, they were able to score enough runs to secure their victory. The players were all smiling as they celebrated their success.

Carthage

Carthage Road, 6.3 miles southeast of Carthage, will be known as Autumn Trail after the state legislature approved a bill to name it. The road is named in honor of the 150th anniversary of the Carthage Fire Department. The road is a popular route for both locals and tourists, and the name change is expected to bring additional attention to the area.

Farmers market season opening at a new location

The farmers market season has opened at a new location. The market is now located at the intersection of Highway 79 and Highway 36, and is open every Saturday from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. The market features a variety of fresh produce, meats, and cheeses, as well as baked goods and homemade crafts. The market is a great way to support local farmers and producers and to get fresh, healthy food.

Redmon hosts homemakers' club meeting

By MARIE SHERWIN

Redmon Preschool, located at 1205 West 3rd street, was the site of a Homemakers' Club meeting on May 13th. The group met in the school's library to discuss various topics related to homemaking and family life. The meeting was attended by several local homemakers who shared their experiences and insights. A guest speaker, an expert in family nutrition, presented a talk on healthy eating habits for families. The group discussed the importance of including a variety of fresh fruits and vegetables in their meals. The meeting concluded with a roundtable discussion and a Q&A session, where members shared their own recipes and tips for managing household chores efficiently. The next meeting will be held on June 10th, focusing on tips for organizing and decluttering homes. For more information, interested homemakers can contact the Preschool at 219-526-3142.

Calendar of events

Fathers' Day, The Panola Watchman, June 16th, 1992

Fathers' Day was celebrated on June 16th, 1992. The Panola Watchman reported on various events and activities organized to honor and celebrate fathers. The newspaper highlighted different locations across the county where events took place, such as community centers, parks, and local businesses. The day was marked by outdoor activities, family picnics, and special presentations acknowledging the role of fathers in their communities. The Watchman also featured personal stories and testimonials from fathers sharing their experiences and the importance of spending quality time with their children. The newspaper invited readers to contribute their own fatherhood experiences and stories for a special edition to be released on Father's Day.

Children's Painting Class

Children's Painting Class was advertised in The Panola Watchman, June 16th, 1992. The class was held at the Panola County Library, and participants were encouraged to join in order to learn new painting techniques. The newspaper highlighted the class's aim to provide a creative and fun environment for children to express themselves and develop their artistic skills. The class was open to children of all ages, and the cost was $10 per participant. The newspaper invited interested families to call 219-4167 to enroll in the class and reserve their spots.

The Wizard of Oz

The Wizard of Oz was mentioned in The Panola Watchman, June 16th, 1992. The newspaper reported on the announcement of a production of the classic musical, with performances scheduled throughout the summer. The production was directed by a local theater group and featured a cast of local actors. The newspaper encouraged readers to attend the show and enjoy the timeless story of following dreams and facing challenges. The Watchman also included details about ticket pricing and availability, and invited readers to contact the theater group for more information.

Carthage High School Commencement Exercises

Carthage High School Commencement Exercises will be held on Friday, May 29, 1992, at 6:30 PM in the G.M. Martin Stadium. This event is a significant milestone for the graduating class of 1992, marking their transition to the next chapter of their lives. The ceremony is expected to be a festive occasion, with family, friends, and community members coming together to celebrate the achievements of the graduating students. The Watchman encouraged readers to attend the event and witness the special moment of their children, friends, and community members celebrating their academic successes.
