College tax rate shows slight hike

Pamela Collins, Chairwoman of the Tax Commission, last week approved an 11-cent tax rate for the upcoming fiscal year. The rate revision is within the limits of state law for new property valuation, the school district is still awaiting the release of the state education worker budget request from the state. The 11-cent tax rate, which is 2 cents below the current 13-cent rate, will be effective for the 2019-2020 fiscal year. A separate special election will be held to vote on the tax levy.

UT Tyler’s plan blasted by Hughes

By LAURA NUGRA

Calling the proposed “falsehood” in much academic circles, Pamela Collins has blasted the UT Tyler’s plan to cut its budget by 11 cents. Hughes said Tuesday, “The proposed budget cuts the basic expenses of the university, including the education of many students.”

Local mayor pro-temp mayoral review

By CHARLES NACLOR

Despite the mayor’s eligibility of the town, many residents have criticized the current mayor, John Robertson, for his inexperience and limited knowledge of the town. Robertson has been in office for two years. The mayor and his assistant have been providing services to the town, but the residents are still concerned about the mayor’s ability to lead.

Local hospital expansion

PGH holds gala grand opening

By LAURA NUGRA

“This is a glowing day for Pamela Collins,” said Mayor Robertson. “The hospital expansion is going to be a huge asset to our community.”

The mayor added that the community has been waiting for this day for a long time. “I’ve seen the hospital expand, and I know that our community will be better served,” said the mayor.

The hospital expansion is a major project that will include a new emergency department, new patient rooms, and new administrative offices. The hospital expansion will cost $15 million and will be completed in 2020.

Mayor Robertson thanked the hospital’s board of directors and the many volunteers who have contributed to the project. “This is a true community effort,” said the mayor.

The mayor also thanked the local businesses who have supported the hospital expansion. “Thank you for your support,” said the mayor.

Mayor Robertson concluded by saying that the hospital expansion is a sign of the community’s growth and development. “We are growing and developing, and this hospital expansion is a testament to that,” said the mayor.

Hailie resigns post due to health

Search begins for juvenile hospital

By LAURA NUGRA

Hailie’s parents said that she has been fighting a battle with juvenile hospital for several years. “We have tried everything we can to help Hailie, but nothing seems to be working,” said Hailie’s father.

Hailie’s doctor, Dr. Smith, said that she is currently undergoing treatment for her condition. “Hailie is doing everything she can to fight this battle,” said Dr. Smith.

Despite the challenges, Hailie’s parents remain hopeful for the future. “We are doing everything we can to help Hailie,” said Hailie’s mother.

Dawgs facing tough scrimmage opener

Dawgs' bite coach Charles LeLuel has his charges under a microscope doing drill work.

Wishbone new offensive scheme

Bearcats scrimmage this Friday

By Charles McPhail

Continuing the quest for excellence, Wiley College will be opening a new season under the guidance of new head coach Charles LeLuel. LeLuel, a former Wiley player, is expected to have his team ready for action.

The season opener will be against the University of Texas at Dallas, on August 27. The game will take place at 7 p.m. in the newly renovated Memorial Stadium.

LeLuel is optimistic about the upcoming season. "We have a lot of talent on this team," he said. "We are confident in our ability to compete with the best in the country."

The team will be led by quarterback Jeff Johnson, who transferred from Stephen F. Austin State University. Johnson is expected to be the leader of the offense.

The defense will be led by linebacker Terry Cooper, who was named second team All-American last season. Cooper will be joined by fellow linebackers Daryl Green and Mark Davis.

The season opener is an important one for the team, as it is the first of six scheduled games.

Final hunter safety course planned here

Carthage, Panola players impress Junior Olympics

By Charles McPhail

The final hunter safety course will be held at the Panola County Airport on September 10. The course will be led by the Panola County Sheriff's Department and the Panola County Game Warden.

The course will cover all aspects of hunting, including safety rules, animal identification, and hunting regulations. Participants will also be given the opportunity to practice shooting.

The course is open to anyone, including children and adults. The fee is $5 per person, and reservations are required. For more information, call the Panola County Sheriff's Department at 903-723-0770.

Carthage, Panola players impress Junior Olympics

By Charles McPhail

The Carthage High School girls' basketball team and the Panola College men's baseball team both made a strong showing at the Junior Olympics recently.

The Carthage team, under the guidance of coach Paul Johnson, won the gold medal in the girls' basketball division. The team was led by senior captain Jessica Wright, who was named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament.

The Panola College team, coached by Joe Smith, won the gold medal in the men's baseball division. The team was led by senior captain Jake Thompson, who was named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament.

The Carthage High School team will be defending its title in the upcoming season, while the Panola College team will be looking to repeat its success.

Foster captures tennis title in ET grand prix

By Charles McPhail

Carthage's Jordan Foster captured the boys' singles title at the ET Grand Prix recently. Foster defeated his opponent in straight sets, 6-4, 6-2, to win the championship.

Foster was the only player from Carthage High School to make it to the final. He was successful in defeating his opponent in the semifinal round, 6-0, 6-0.

Foster is a longtime player for Carthage High School and has been a strong contender in the tennis division. He hopes to continue his success in the upcoming season.

Fall softball league sets meeting on Thursday night

By Charles McPhail

The Carthage Softball League will be holding a meeting on Thursday night to discuss the upcoming season. The meeting will be held at the Carthage High School gym at 7 p.m.

The Carthage Softball League is open to all players in the Carthage area and will be holding games throughout the season.

The league is made up of teams from Carthage High School, Panola College, and the community.

The meeting will be an opportunity for players to hear about the upcoming season and to discuss any concerns they may have.

NOT TO BE MISSED

The Carthage High School homecoming game will be held on September 10, with the team facing the rival Pine Bluff Pirates. The game is expected to be a highly anticipated one, with many fans expected to attend.

The Carthage High School homecoming queen will be crowned during the game, and the Homecoming Court will be announced.

This is an event not to be missed, and all fans are encouraged to attend.
