The Dallas Morning News tried to find the top 10 legislators in the state. It could only find 7.

And Bill Ratliff was one of them.

"Ask any member of the Texas Senate to name the colleague who comes closest to being a model senator, and almost every one will say Bill Ratliff," the Morning News wrote. In four short years, Bill Ratliff has achieved more than most senators do in an entire career. According to the Morning News, he "served with virtually every senator on the committee and never failed to improve bad bills."

Bill Ratliff is the kind of senator every Texans deserve. Let's return Ratliff to the Texas Senate and keep him hard at work for all of us.

Dawgs, Henderson renew big rivalry

Hopefully Lions will bring out the best in Carthage

Carthage offensive line can't stop

Carthage's offensive line can't stop the opposing defense from bringing the ball to the ground. The Lions' defense has been able to slow down the offense, keeping them from scoring.

The Lions have a strong defense that is able to stop the opposing offense. They have been able to keep the ball out of their opponents' hands for most of the game.

However, the Lions' offense has been struggling. They have had only a few scoring opportunities, and have been unable to capitalize on them.

Despite this, the Lions remain confident that they can turn things around. They believe that their defense will be able to keep the ball out of their opponents' hands, and that the offense will be able to score enough points to win the game.

If the Lions can hold onto the ball and score a few points, they believe that they can win the game and advance to the next round.

The game is sure to be a high-scoring one, with both teams looking to put on a show for the fans.

The outcome of the game is up in the air, and will be determined by the players' performance on the field.

Final score: Lions win 35-30.
