Economy displays dramatic upswing

The economic upturn that swept through the West for December, showing the biggest gain in business in years, has also spread to Colorado. Business in Colorado is better than it was for the past 10 years, according to experts. The state's economy has shown signs of improvement, and the future looks bright for the region.

Jones manages to move in

JONES, the new manager of the National Security Council, has been doing a good job. He has been given a great deal of responsibility, and he has shown himself to be a capable and effective leader. His performance has been praised by many, and he is expected to continue to do well in his new role.

TAX DEFERRAL AVAILABLE FOR ELDERLY HOMEOWNERS

Texans aged 65 or over can postpone paying delinquent and current property taxes on their homesteads by taking advantage of a tax relief program called "over 65." The elderly are responsible for signing a deferral affidavit at the Panola County Appraisal District.

This special form of tax relief can also be filed by a homeowner who is sick or disabled. The program is intended to prevent the collection of delinquent property taxes on an older Texan's homestead.

To stop a delinquent tax suit, Pepper said, the over-65 homeowner has the deferral affidavit with the court in which the suit was filed.

"This law means that, if the proper affidavit is on file, an older homeowner cannot lose a home because of delinquent taxes," Pepper said.

Once a homeowner signs an over-65 tax deferral affidavit with the appraisal district, no taxing unit can initiate or pursue a suit for delinquent taxes as long as that person owns and lives in that homestead.

Pepper stressed, though, that tax deferral for the elderly only postpones paying delinquent taxes on the homestead, it does not cancel them. During the deferral period, taxes and delinquent interest continue to accumulate as well.

The interest rate during the deferral period is 8 percent a year. "When the elderly taxpayer no longer owns or lives in the homestead, those accrued amounts become due. Taxing units can then sue to collect the delinquent tax and interest."

While a penalty may not be imposed on the delinquent taxes during the deferral period, the filing of the deferral affidavit will not forgive penalties which were already due. Also, an additional penalty associated with retaining the account to a delinquent tax attorney may be charged if taxes remain delinquent more than 50 days after the deferral ends.

Forms for filing a tax deferral affidavit are available at the appraisal district office. The homeowner should fill out the forms and have the signature witnessed by a notary public," Pepper said. For more information, taxpayers may contact the Panola County Appraisal District at 203 S Park Rd, 683-2681.

FAITH KNOWS HOLIDAYS CAN COME IN MORE THAN ONE FORM

Now all of us, in our own way, will celebrate a holiday. According to our chosen creed, Whose needs we should always heed A heavenly welcome we extend. To every relative and friend, And decorate our home with lights, Or candles on twinkling sight These customs to illuminate Events that we commemorate. The birth or Christianity, Or Hanukkah's joyful nite Whenever one we celebrate. Its meaning is to demonstrate The greatest gift we could receive. The love of God to one and all.

—Gatha Horvat
