CISD board turns back new calendar

By CHARLES MCGEE
Editor
Monday meeting marks second time this year the Conroe Independent School Board of Trustees rejected an academic calendar for the 1994-95 school year.

For the second time this year, the Conroe Independent School Board of Trustees rejected an academic calendar for the 1994-95 school year. The Conroe Independent School Board of Trustees recommends the significant changes to the calendar.

The new calendar, released in English L,
English II, beginning in English I, beginning English IV, beginning in English II, and Biology I, beginning in English IV, and Biology II, beginning in English III.

The system will be added to the university's on-campus courses, and the courses included in the university's catalog will be enlisted.

Rebates continue to soar

For Conroe County, local economic figures continue to point to improving economy. Sales tax rebates, up $1 million, reflect state sales tax boost.

The area is very encouraging, although slight gains are apparent. Approximately 70 percent of the increase in the state's sales tax revenues are expected to be realized in Conroe County.

However, despite the fact that the state revenue is down, 30 percent of the increased revenue is expected to come from Sales tax rebates.

In Conroe, sales tax rebates for the first quarter were $1 million, up $1 million from the same period last year.

The Conroe Independent School District board of trustees rejected the new calendar for the 1994-95 school year.

The calendar, which was presented to the board at its meeting last week, includes an August 25 start date for the school year.

The board has set a date for their next meeting, which is scheduled for February 23.

An explanation occurred Tuesday after a truck, stopped, collided with the musterroller rig.

Acidic leaves one dead

Highway 149 between Sealy and Tomah was the scene of an acident and one death Tuesday after a westbound 1982 GMC one-ton truck carrying oxygen collided with a musterroller rig.

The truck was carrying oxygen for the Texas Department of Public Safety and was involved in a traffic accident.

The oxygen tank on the truck
ignited and the rig caught fire.

A man in the rig, who was identified as a employee of the Texas Department of Public Safety, was killed in the accident.

The victim's name has not been released at this time.

The accident occurred on Tuesday morning.

Local economy still rebounding

The sales tax rebates were so important to local businesses that it was a tight фин pooers of natural gas are reaped in the area with the increased sales tax. The revenues are expected to be realized in Conroe County.

PAL holds meeting Tuesday

The possibilities for the future are endless. The PAL is a great organization to join and I am excited to see what the future holds for me and my fellow PAL members.

Correction

In the Feb. 22 issue of the Panola Watchman, there is an error in the story about the Black History program. The story stated that the program was planned in Panola County, but it was actually planned in Galveston County. We apologize for any confusion this may have caused.

Know Your Heritage

By FRED RASMUSSEN

Barbara Anderson was born on May 29, 1909, in Florence, Georgia. She was the daughter of Thomas and Mary Anderson. Barbara's parents were the founders of Anderson University in Greenville, South Carolina. Barbara was the first woman to graduate from Anderson University in 1931. She then went on to attend the University of Alabama, where she earned a degree in education. After graduation, she taught school in Alabama for several years. In 1945, she married Dr. Frank Williams, a pediatrician. Together, they had two children, David and Mary. Dr. Williams passed away in 1985, but Barbara continued to live in Florence until her passing in 1992. She is survived by her two children and a grandson.

STRENGTH FOR LIVING

BY FRED RASMUSSEN

There are several ways to keep your heart healthy. One is to eat a balanced diet. The second is to exercise. The third is to stay active. The fourth is to stay positive. The fifth is to stay in touch with your family. The sixth is to stay in touch with your friends. The seventh is to stay in touch with your community. The eighth is to stay in touch with your faith. The ninth is to stay in touch with your past.

There's Only One Hawthorn Funeral Home

Of all 22,000 funeral homes in the United States, only a select number stand out. The fact that Hawthorn Funeral Home is one of them is no honor.

Hawthorn is part of two well-respected funeral service associations by invitation only, the International Order of the Golden Rule and National Selected Morticians.

Only one Golden Rule funeral home can serve the Carthage area. That Golden Rule funeral home is Hawthorn Funeral Home. A good name to remember for compassionate care.

Our Great Leaders Were Led by Their Reliance on God

From the beginning, the revered leaders of our nation were chosen by the people, because the majority felt that they were best able to guide our destiny. History has shown us that they were often chosen, as evidenced by the Founding Fathers that we still enjoy today as a result of their efforts. We have also learned that their great humility caused them to seek God's guidance for every major decision that they were called upon to make, because they felt the tremendous burden of responsibility that has been placed upon their shoulders. Those of us responsible for the well-being of our families and our community, would do well to follow their example, in the pursuit of our daily duties and responsibilities.

God is above all earthly rulers, and He is above all human laws.

- James H. Faulkner
