Carthage man killed in accident

A Carthage man was killed early Monday morning when his truck struck a tree on Route 62, according to Capt. James Curran, the Carthage Police Department's chief of police.

The accident occurred at 12:30 a.m. on April 3 between the intersection of Route 62 and the entrance to Lane's Lazy Leopard on Route 56.

The victim, 42-year-old Robert E. Davis, was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident by the Lewis County ambulance team.

Davis was a nurse at Coldspring Hospital and had worked for the hospital for over 20 years.

According to law enforcement officials, Davis was driving a 1992 Ford Taurus when he lost control of the vehicle and collided with a tree.

Davis's family has been notified of his death and the Carthage Police Department will be conducting an investigation to determine the cause of the accident.

Kiwianco show this Saturday

Enjoy an evening of entertainment provided by some of the greatest and most popular young people. Carthage Kiwanian Club will host their annual Kiwanis Club Show on Saturday, April 23, at 7 p.m. in the Carthage High School auditorium.

The Kiwanian Club of Carthage has been providing entertainment for the Carthage community for over 20 years. This year's show will feature a variety of acts, including dancers, singers, and musicians.

Tickets for the show are available at the Kiwanian Club office located at 101 North Main Street. General admission is $10 and $2 for children under 12. Group discounts are available for groups of 10 or more.

The proceeds from the show will be used to support local charities and community programs.

CHS cover shot wins first with anti-drug video

The Carthage High School video group, under the direction of John Smith, won first place in the regional Substance Abuse Media Star with their video which featured students and community members sharing their experiences with substance abuse.

The video was produced in conjunction with the Substance Abuse Prevention Program and aimed to raise awareness about the dangers of drug use.

The Carthage High School video group is thrilled with their win and plans to use the prize money to continue producing videos that will help educate students and the community about the dangers of drug use.

Masonic cookbook Friday

Delicious recipes will fill the air in downtown Carthage Friday night when the Carthage Masonic Lodge hosts its annual cookbook release.

The lodge will be selling copies of their newest cookbook, which features recipes from local chefs and Masonic members.

The cookbook will be available for purchase at the lodge located at 303 Main Street from 5 to 8 p.m. All proceeds from the sale will go towards the lodge's community outreach programs.

The lodge has been serving the Carthage community for over 100 years and is proud to offer this cookbook as a way to give back to the community.

Jefferson deserved better

Charles McCune

The panel of judges at Jefferson High School searched for clues to determine the winner of the 1937 state basketball championship as they reviewed film from the tournament. The panel included representatives from the Panola County Extension Service, the Agricultural Department, and the Jefferson County Chamber of Commerce. The judges were tasked with selecting the best player of the tournament, and their decision was based on the performance of each player throughout the games. The panel deliberated for several hours, discussing and analyzing each player's skills and contributions to the games. In the end, they arrived at a consensus, naming the winner of the tournament. The panel's decision was considered final, and the winner was announced to the public. The victory was celebrated by the Jefferson High School community, who were proud of their team's achievement.

Lennon stars in Manet film; Kubrick conquers fear of flying

Lennon and Marsters break up after 14 years of marriage. In a recent interview, Marsters said that the couple had been struggling for some time. However, she refused to elaborate on the reasons for their split.

In other news, Kubrick has again proven his mettle with a new film. The movie, which is titled "Fear of Flying," is a psychological thriller that explores the theme of anxiety and the fear of losing control in one's life. The film is expected to be a major box office hit and is scheduled to release in theaters next month.
