Home-canners compete

People from all over the country came to Pittsburg to take part in the annual cylinder canning competition. The event was sponsored by the Pittsburg Area Canning Club and the event was judged by the Slow-Cooker State Fair judges. The competition was held at the Pittsburg Civic Center and was open to all residents of Kansas. The competition featured a variety of canned goods, including vegetables, fruits, and meats. The judges evaluated the quality of the canned goods based on factors such as appearance, texture, and taste. The competition was well attended, with over 100 entries submitted. The winners were announced at the awards ceremony held at the end of the competition. The competition was a success and was enjoyed by all who attended. Panola Nationals blast Marshall 13-6 in meet

BY ROBERT BROWN

Panola Nationals coach Robert Brown was all smiles after his team’s 13-6 victory over Marshall in the first game of the district tournament.

"Our bats were hot today," Brown said. "We got off to a quick start and never looked back. Marshall fought back a bit in the fourth inning, but our pitching held them in check."

In the first game, the Nationals' pitching held Marshall to just one run on six hits. Marshall's starting pitcher, who lasted just two innings, gave up six runs, including four earned, on six hits.

The Nationals scored four runs in the first inning on a two-out double by Jimmy Brown. Marshall's David Taylor hit a solo home run in the second inning, but the Nationals quickly retaliated with a double and a sacrifice fly to take a 5-1 lead.

In the fourth inning, Marshall scored once with two outs. However, the Nationals responded with a three-run inning to take a 13-2 lead. Marshall scored its final run in the fifth inning on a sacrifice fly.

The Nationals went on to win the game 13-6. Brown praised his team's defense, saying they did a great job of turning double plays and limiting Marshall's opportunities.

"We played well defensively," Brown said. "Our players were in position to make the plays when they needed to."

The Nationals will face either Cleveland or Longview in the championship game of the district tournament. Marshall will face either Cleveland or Longview in the consolation game.

PC American 11-12 nips Pine Tree 6-5 in tourney

By BILL JOHNSON

PC American, led by the pitching of Mike Odom, defeated Pine Tree 11-12, 6-5, to reach the championship game of the district tournament.

"Our guys played well today," PC American manager Mike Sparks said. "Mike pitched well, and our bats were hot. We hit a few home runs and scored some runs early on."

PC American, playing in their home field, scored four runs in the first inning on a two-out double by Mike Odom. Pine Tree scored once in the second inning, but the Nationals scored twice in the third inning on a double by Mike Sparks and an error.

In the fourth inning, PC American scored three runs on a double by John Smith and a three-run home run by Mike Odom.

Pine Tree scored once in the fifth inning, but PC American scored a run on a single by Mike Sparks and a sacrifice fly to take a 12-1 lead. Pine Tree scored once in the sixth inning, but PC American scored three runs on a double by John Smith and an error.

PC American, led by Mike Odom's strong pitching, held Pine Tree to just one run on five hits. Mike Odom lasted seven innings, giving up one run, one earned, on five hits.

"Mike pitched a great game," Sparks said. "He didn't walk anyone and kept the runners from advancing. We played well defensively and were able to get the key outs when we needed them."

The Nationals will face either Cleveland or Longview in the championship game of the district tournament. Pine Tree will face either Cleveland or Longview in the consolation game.
