Commitment continues today

In the wake of the Panama War, our community continues to support our military personnel overseas. The families of our soldiers are facing challenges and we must remember to thank them for their sacrifices and support them in any way we can.

New map puts Senate seats up for grabs

All 14 of Texas Senate seats are up for grabs in the 2022 election, and the Republican Party is working hard to maintain control of the Senate. The district map is drawn to favor Republicans, and the party's goal is to keep a veto-proof majority.
