Hospital splits vote over lease

A new split vote by the Panola County Hospital Board in 1973 upset plans for a hospital expansion in the county. The board had previously approved $300,000 in bond funds for a new wing to the hospital, with the proceeds to pay for the construction of a new wing. However, the new split vote reversed the decision, with some board members arguing that the hospital needed to focus on other priorities.

CISD trustees request waiver

In 1973, the CISD trustees requested a waiver to allow them to implement a new educational program. The program was designed to improve the quality of education in the district, but it required additional funding that the district did not have. The trustees argued that the program was essential for the future success of the district and asked for a waiver to allow them to proceed.

Jobless figures down from 1992

According to the 1992 employment data, unemployment rates were lower than in previous years. However, the exact figures are not available in the document.

BISD search to continue

Despite the resignation of the superintendent, the BISD search committee continued its efforts to find a new leader for the school district. The committee had received several applications and was in the process of conducting interviews.

BMS efforts pay dividends

The BMS efforts to improve the financial situation of the school district paid off in 1992. The district was able to balance its budget and reduce its debt. The district also received a grant to improve its educational programs.
Famborough educates at gas seminar

Mrs. Famborough said the team has received the support of the community, which has been very encouraging. The team has been working on educating the community about the dangers of gas peepers and how to use them safely.

"The community is very receptive," said Mrs. Famborough. "They understand the importance of using gas peepers and are willing to learn how to use them safely. We have received a lot of positive feedback from the community."

The Sheriffs Report

By Sheriff Jack Bailey

In the new year there is going to be change in the way to police our community. We have been notified that there will be a new sheriff to be appointed in the near future. This new sheriff will be responsible for the supervision of the police department, which will include the investigation of all criminal cases in the county and the enforcement of all laws. He will also be responsible for the maintenance of public order, the prevention of crime, and the protection of the rights of citizens. The new sheriff will be a sworn officer of the law, and will be subject to the supervision of the county judge and the approval of the county commissioners. The new sheriff will be responsible for the appointment of all police officers, and will have the authority to suspend or dismiss any officer for cause. The new sheriff will be a member of the police department, and will be subject to the same rules and regulations as the other officers. The new sheriff will be paid a salary, which will be determined by the county commissioners. The new sheriff will be required to maintain a record of all arrests made by the police department, and will be required to report to the county judge and the county commissioners on a regular basis. The new sheriff will be responsible for the training of all police officers, and will be required to maintain a high standard of conduct and performance. The new sheriff will be required to keep the county judge and the county commissioners informed of all developments in the case of any individual who has been charged with a crime. The new sheriff will be required to maintain an accurate record of all arrests made by the police department, and will be required to report to the county judge and the county commissioners on a regular basis. The new sheriff will be required to maintain a high standard of conduct and performance.

We seldom think about what this newspaper does for us

If you're reading this, you're holding a newspaper in your hands. Do you ever think about all the things you do? You work hard, you study hard, you read, you write, you think. And all of these things need to be reported. In order to keep our newspaper running, we need to solicit advertisers. We need to have a good reputation. And we need to be able to pay our bills. Without these things, we would not be able to do our job. So if you're reading this, you're helping us keep our newspaper running. And we thank you for that.
