The Pamela Watchman

There are no secrets about how the Carthage coaches and players get ready for the sectional title game against Chapel Hill. It's just that the Indians are from the same conference and have learned from playing the other teams in the district.

The Pamlico Windillers, whose first title game was held on August 23, are the only team to beat Carthage this year. They beat the Indians 2-0 in the season opener and have never been beaten. The Indians have scored 24 goals and are 3-0 in district play. They also beat the Pamlico Bottlers 3-0 in the season opener.

On the other hand, Chapel Hill has been in the top 10 of the state for most of the season. They have only lost to Carthage and are 3-1 in district play. They beat the Pamlico Bottlers 3-0 in the season opener.

The Pamlico Windillers are ranked 7th in the state and are the only team to beat Carthage this year. They have scored 24 goals and are 3-0 in district play. They also beat the Pamlico Bottlers 3-0 in the season opener.
