Festival on the Square
Patriotism runs strong through country music, Ritter said

A few short months before his death, Tex Ritter wrote his address at the "Alpine American Legion Post 239," referring to the town he called "Texas."

Ritter, who was born in 1911 and died in 1965 at age 60, was a member of the American Legion for many years. He was buried in the town where he lived for most of his life.

Another member of the American Legion, who was born in 1910 and died in 1963 at age 53, was also a member of the same post. He was buried in the town where he lived for most of his life.

A member of the American Legion, who was born in 1912 and died in 1964 at age 52, was also a member of the same post. He was buried in the town where he lived for most of his life.

In his memory, all members of the American Legion Post 239 will be remembered in a special ceremony at the town hall on the anniversary of his death. The ceremony will include a moment of silence, a reading of his life story, and a presentation of a medal in his honor.

SPREAD from page 10

In honor of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the American Legion Post 239, the members of the post will be joined by other members of the community in a special ceremony at the town hall on the anniversary of his death. The ceremony will include a moment of silence, a reading of his life story, and a presentation of a medal in his honor.

Remember the good times...
Boos Jack
(By Tex Ritter)

Pick a lot o' cotton, drag a long sack
Comin' cross the field, well, I see Boss Jack
He's ridin' straddle of a single foot roan
When you know that horse you'll leave him alone.

That old roan's got green in his eyes
Mean as the devil and twice as wise
Fire in his nose and bow in his back
Can't nobody ride him but Boss Jack.

Come on, children, bend your back
Work a little faster, full your sack
Then you hitch up the wagon, take it to the gin
Finish pickin' lose the winter beta in.

Now here awhile back when the crop was laid by
Remember who took us on a big fish fry?
Caught a heap of catfish, got a line of carp
Danced and sang to the guitar and harp.

Well some day of Boss Jack's gonna set us all free,
Gabriel's gonna blow for you and me,
Angels gonna bring that chariot from above
Flappin' their wings like a turtle dove.
