Heritage Hall opens doors to history
Museum tours begin Saturday

On the first floor, patrons will find various artifacts that have been displayed for decades. Throughout the two floors, visitors can enjoy a wide range of exhibits and displays that highlight the history of the site.

College focuses attention on alcohol abuse problem

On the second floor, the museum will feature a new exhibit on the history of alcohol abuse and treatment. The exhibit will include interactive displays and educational materials to help visitors understand the impact of alcohol abuse on individuals and communities.

Downtown Roundup begins today

Food, fun, and family entertainment

The annual Downtown Roundup is set to kick off this weekend, featuring a variety of food vendors, live music, and family-friendly activities. The event will take place from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Heritage Hall.

District purchases reformatted TV set

The school district has purchased a new, high-definition television set for the new media center. The set will be used for presentations, video conferencing, and other media-related activities.

Making learning fun

The school district is introducing a new, interactive learning platform designed to make education more engaging and exciting for students. The platform includes games, puzzles, and other activities that help students develop critical thinking and problem-solving skills.

Jvs blank Cats 32-0 in second loop win

HALLSVILLE - When the Jvs go on the road, they usually cause some problems for their opponent.

The Cats couldn't do much when they faced the Jvs at home Saturday. They lost 32-0.

The Jvs looked good offensively, but their defense had a big part in the win.

Don't count the Cats out yet. They still have some games left in the second loop.

Another good win for the Jvs. They are building some momentum as the season goes on.

Amoco loses 18-3, wins 14-10

Has Beens suffer first loss

The Jvs had a tough game against Amoco, losing 18-3. However, they came back to win against Hirschi 14-10.

Despite the loss, the Jvs are still building confidence.

The Cats had a few big plays in the loss, but overall they couldn't keep up with the Jvs.

The Best Place To Carpool
Is To Our House of Worship

We are continually urged to carpool as much as possible: to walk, on shopping trips, etc., to conserve fuel and reduce traffic congestion. These are even specially marked freeway lanes reserved for cars with two or more occupants.

Of course, carpooling isn’t always possible because of varied situations, but there is one place to which we can always share a ride to a House of Worship. If you have a neighbor or a nearby friend who is not affiliated with any faith, extend an invitation to give you to worship God on the Sabbath day. That person may be as impressed by the experience as you are. If you return the favor the next time in any case, you both receive the blessing of the inspiring words of the sermon, and you will undoubtedly absorb them during your shared ride home together.

Come all to church, good people.
