LP announces new Carthage plant

Facility to employ 140 by mid-1995

The announcement made as part of the reorganization of the Panola County Power Company (PCPC) yesterday will result in the new plant being built in Carthage. The company will employ 140 people by mid-1995.

With the help of city and county officials and leaders of the local business community, Peoples Gas and Electric Co. of Beaumont and Commerce, Cliff Toomer, and Charles D. Thomas of the company, a new division general manager for LP was named to assist in the construction of the new facility.

"Me and my wife, Bob, when he asked if we wanted to be part of the new plant, we were all for it," said Toomer, president of the Panola County Development Council, and chairman of the company's board.

Mr. R. L. Elder, director of the company's personnel department, was also named to assist in the construction of the new plant.

"It's a big deal for the city and county," said Elder, "and we're going to do everything we can to make sure that the new facility is a success for Panola County.

LP announced on Tuesday that it will build a new power plant in Carthage, creating 140 new jobs. The plant will be the first in the state to be built by the company since 1987.

"We're excited about this new plant," said Elder. "It's going to be a great day for the city and county.

Local turnout low for election

Voters approve income tax amendment

Keeping with state tradition, voters approved an amendment to the state constitution on Saturday.

The amendment would give the state legislature the power to increase the state's income tax rate.

The amendment was approved by a vote of 66,685 to 39,700.

The election was held throughout the state and was supervised by the state's election officials.

The amendment was the result of a campaign by the state's leading candidates for governor, Mandy Richardson and3.

 Voters approved the income tax amendment by a 2-to-1 margin. Richardson and her supporters were expected to challenge the result, arguing that the election was flawed.

Gary man critical of voting system

A Gary man is critical of the state's voting system and the way the election was conducted.

"I don't think the election was conducted fairly," said Gary County Commissioner Bill Johnson. "I don't think the voters had a chance to vote how they wanted.

Johnson said that the vote totals were not released until after the election, and that the results were not final until after the recount.

"I think the voters were not given a chance to vote how they wanted," said Johnson. "I think the election was conducted in a way that was not fair to the voters.

Podiatrist to address diabetic support group

A podiatrist will address the diabetic support group at the St. Thomas Hospital in Gary on Saturday.

The podiatrist, Dr. R. R. Johnson, will speak on the importance of foot care for diabetics.

"It's important for diabetics to take care of their feet," said Johnson. "If you have diabetes, you need to take care of your feet.

Johnson said that diabetics are at a higher risk for foot problems.

Graves runs wild in 40-3 win over Pine Tree

Dog frosh undefeated 15-AAAA titlists

LONGVIEW — Dean Graves put his mark on the 1993 season for the Pine Tree Bobcats as he ran for 237 yards and scored three touchdowns to lead the Bobcats to a 40-3 victory over the Longview Leopards.

Graves, a freshman, was unstoppable as he rushed for three touchdowns, including a 53-yarder, and added another score on a 15-yard pass from quarterback Michael Brown.

Longview managed to score on a 33-yard field goal by punter Tommy Fleming, but that was all they could manage against Pine Tree's defensive line.

Pine Tree coach Mike Carroll praised Graves for his performance, saying, "He's a special player and we're fortunate to have him on our team."
