Grant targets home repairs

27 applications evaluated

The City of Cartersville Neighborhood Improvement Committee has completed initial stages for the repair of homes for low- and moderate-income families. At least $1,000 will be used for the repairs, which will be used for materials and labor. Additional requirements include the availability of a home improvement permit and a willingness to complete the work within a year. The city is currently accepting applications for the program.

Children in support battles

In the year 2000, a single mother lost her job because of her children's behavior problems. She struggled to keep her head above water and was unable to find a job. She turned to the Child Advocacy Center for help. The center provided her with resources and support, helping her to get back on her feet.

Spillway troubles board

Paper blamed for cancelled warranty

Board chairman Joe Woods doesn’t want it made public that the Panola County Board of Commissioners is facing a spillway problems situation. He says the problem is under warranty. Although Woods wouldn’t want it known that the spillway problems are under warranty, he wants it known that the spillway problems are under warranty. In addition, he says the spillway problems are under warranty. Woods added that he has been working with the manufacturer to resolve the spillway problems.

However, after further investigation, it was discovered that the spillway problems are under warranty and not due to the manufacturer's fault. The manufacturer has agreed to fix the spillway problems under warranty at no cost to the customer.

At a recent spillway meeting, Woods told the board that the spillway problems are under warranty and not due to the manufacturer's fault. The manufacturer has agreed to fix the spillway problems under warranty at no cost to the customer.

King announces re-election bid

To the voters of Panola County,

I am announcing my decision to seek the re-election of my seat in Congress. In this time of uncertainty and change, I believe that my experience and dedication to serving the needs of our community are more important than ever. I look forward to continuing to work on behalf of all residents of Panola County and ensuring that our voices are heard in Washington. Thank you for your support.

Know Your Heritage

Dr. John T. McNellis, End
by Mrs. Lula B. Lemons

A second award winning was presented to Mrs. Lemons by the Panola County Historical Society in its annual meeting in December. Mrs. Lemons, who has been active in historical organizations for many years, was honored for her contributions to the preservation of local history.

Another award that has been presented to her was a plaque from the Panola County Historical Society's board of directors. The plaque recognizes Mrs. Lemons' dedication to preserving the history of Panola County.

In her acceptance speech, Mrs. Lemons thanked the members of the historical society for their support and dedication to preserving the history of Panola County.

There's a major difference between a funeral home that will go out of the way and one that is just simply out of the way.

A firm that does everything possible to help ensure the importance of a funeral home's accessibility. Many families take advantage of our convenient downtown location to stop by over their lunch break or right after work. At Hawthorn, you can pay your respects and sign a register at a time that fits with your schedule.
Let Us Pray That One Day
We Will See Peace On Earth.

The love this holiday should bring,
With colored lights and bells that ring,
In mock-Christmases, decorate them
by fractions in some odd spot.
With my less complicated.

The Savior's birth upon this date,
With excitement that extends to neighbors, relatives, and friends. Moreover, we'll resolve to lend
The readings of no more sound.
And though the words are not the same,
No message that would proclaim
Requires us to give some thought
To lessons that the Savior taught
About this time, for what it's worth.
Then let us pray for peace on earth.

To everyone there in a season...

A time to be born, and a time to die, a time to plant, and a time to pluck, that which is planted.

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

A time to keep silence, and a time to speak.

A time of war, and a time of peace.

"Dear Santa: I want a real baby pig."

Dear Santa,

My name is Hibby Willis. I am 6 years old. I have been a very good girl this year. I would like a baby pig this year. I would like a small, fluffy, pink, white baby pig. I would like my pig to be friendly and like to play. I would like to feed and brush my pig. I would like my pig to run around the yard and like to play with my other animals. I would like my pig to be very cute and cuddly.

Thank you,

Hibby Willis
