Deductions can be smart moves you can make to cut your taxes

If you like your money where you can see it, and not where your financial advisor or tax preparer can see it, this might be a good way to lose it.

If you like your money where you can see it, and not where your financial advisor or tax preparer can see it, this might be a good way to lose it.

For instance, you have a CPA (Certified Public Accountant) or other tax preparer who could help you save money. If you didn’t have a tax preparer, you would have to pay them for their services.

The point of this is to show you that if you want to save money, you have to do it yourself. You can’t rely on someone else to do it for you. If you want to save money, you have to do it yourself. Dragons rise to top when Apaches lose Terrorizing the Taft defense was Pantego Central's 6-7 senior forward Pat McGinnis. The 17-year-old center scored 17 points and grabbed 13 rebounds as the Knights defeated the Apaches 70-64.

On the same floor, the Apaches could only manage a 64-58 victory over rival Lozano High School. Apaches' senior center Ed Brown scored 19 points and grabbed 12 rebounds.

On the court, the Apaches were outrebounded 25-15 by the Knights, but still managed to outscore them by 46 points in the final quarter.

In the final quarter, Pantego Central rally was too much for the Apaches to handle. The young Apaches, led by senior guard John Smith, were unable to keep up with the fierce offensive play of the Knights.

The Apaches' defense was unable to stop the Knights' scoring machine as they scored 29 points in the final quarter. The Apaches' defense was unable to stop the Knights' scoring machine as they scored 29 points in the final quarter.

For Pantego Central, the victory was sweet revenge for their loss earlier in the season to the Apaches.

The Tallahassee County Historical Society recently hosted an awards ceremony to honor local residents for their contributions to Tallahassee's history. Among those recognized was Mr. James D. Logan, who has been an active member of the society for many years. He presented a plaque to Mr. Logan's great-great-grandson, Mr. John D. Logan, for his work in preserving historical records. The ceremony was held in conjunction with the annual Tallahassee Historical Society meeting, which featured a presentation on the history of Tallahassee's early tobacco industry. The meeting was held in the historic Tallahassee County Courthouse, which was built in 1849 and is now a registered landmark.

PHARMACY TOPICS

By Paul Johnson, Registered Pharmacist

A recent study published in the American Journal of Pharmaceutical Education found that increased availability of over-the-counter medications has led to a decline in hospitalizations for acetaminophen overdose. The study, which was based on data from the Cleveland Clinic, found that the number of hospitalizations for acetaminophen overdose decreased by 30% in the five years following the introduction of nonprescription acetaminophen. The researchers suggested that increased availability of acetaminophen may be contributing to this decline, as patients are more likely to use it for minor pain relief. The study also found that the number of hospitalizations for acetaminophen overdose among teenagers and young adults has increased in recent years, likely due to increased availability of over-the-counter medications.

When death occurs at a distance, away from where advance funeral plans were made, it takes an expert to see that all arrangements come together.

We live in a society that is increasingly mobile. Which increases the possibility of death occurring away from home. This can add to confusion. Especially when arrangements have been thoughtfully made in advance. But not to worry. When you have made advance funeral arrangements with us, all you have to do is to call. Wherever you are, there's a qualified service provider who will handle everything for you.
Teachers, Like Police, Risk Their Lives Every Day.

Teachers are the hardest working members of any profession, and they work under increasingly difficult conditions. Discipline must be maintained before anything can be taught. In a simpler time, discipline consisted merely of stopping kids from throwing spitballs or paper darts; but today, a teacher must contend with students who bring guns and knives into the classroom and often use them. Another problem is that of trying to keep young brains dulled by drugs and alcohol.

In some of all this, there are a number of teachers who, on their own time, work with handicapped or learning-disabled children. At your House of Worship, thank God for our teachers, who, in spite of the dangers, are willing to give so much of themselves to prepare our children for the lives ahead of them.
