Consider Nursing Homes For Short-Term Rehab

Medicare Will Cover Up To 100 Days

Many have overlooked the possibility of short-term therapy as a nursing home to help you recover from hospitalization during the first 20 days of your stay. Medicare will pay 100 percent of these costs. After 20 days, Medicare pays a substantial portion of the costs while you pay a daily co-insurance amount.

The Latest In Services And Supplies

Just a few of the nursing home services and supplies covered by Medicare include: bedside commode, wheelchair, bed, and durable medical supplies, physical and occupational therapy, speech-language pathology, lab services, X-rays, and respiratory therapy.
