Ponies on the field. In the dirt is a pitcher's mound. A batter in a blue jersey is up to bat. A catcher in a white jersey is behind the plate. The umpire is behind the catcher. In the background, a crowd of spectators is watching the game. The scoreboard shows the Ponies leading 5-3. The lineups are displayed on the scoreboard. The team members are wearing green and blue uniforms. A baseball glove is in the foreground. The field is a lush green with white lines marking the bases. The sun is shining brightly, casting shadows on the field. A banner reading "Ponies Win" hangs in the background."

On hiring a fox to guard the henhouse

In a humorous twist, a local farmer has decided to hire a fox to guard his chickens. The farmer's reasoning is that foxes are naturally predators of chickens, and thus, a fox would be an effective deterrent. This has sparked a debate among the local community about the effectiveness of this unconventional solution.

Home Again... Thanks To Medicare!

Getting From Hospital To Home Is Easier With Skilled Rehab & Medicare

If you've been hospitalized with a serious injury or illness, you may need help getting home as soon as your condition improves, but you may need therapy after you leave the hospital. Medicare can help pay for services during the 100-day period after hospitalization, as well as services that help you recover and return home. Medicare also covers some skilled nursing services, such as home health care and physical therapy.
