Fire destroys home

A Carlsbad home was ex- plicitly described by fire Thursday. Carlsbad firefighters were called to the scene on Carney Road at 11:15 a.m. where a cer- tifiablely completely engulfed fire was burning.

According to Carlsbad fireman Roy Johnson, the house was many-ex- pectable in flames from one end to the other.

The reason that the house was on fire is unknown. The house was unoccupied and had been unoccupied for some time.

As the fire consumed the home, tiny and Faye Halton, were not present when the fire broke out.

Basketball excitement promised

Clairborne named head coach

If experience and a strong driving was not enough, Mike Clairborne would have been hired by the exciting basketball coach.

Clairborne is a former Carlsbad High School basketball coach, and has been named as assistant coach to Carlsbad assistant basketball coach Bob Collier.

While at Carlsbad, Clairborne was named the head coach in 1985, at a conference game. Clairborne was selected as the head coach of the Van Horn High School in 1988, the same year he left Carlsbad.

In 1989, Clairborne decided to leave the high school to join Carlsbad - a decision he has never regretted.

"I am excited about my promotion because it was the first opportunity for me, in my entire coaching career, to be at a high school," Clairborne said.

"I enjoy the excitement of high school basketball," Clairborne said.

While at Carlsbad, Clairborne helped the players learn how to play the game of basketball.

"I hope that I can help the players learn how to play the game of basketball," Clairborne said.

With 47 years, Hill is predicted to become the district's first districtwide teacher of the day. Hill taught in Pecos for 47 years and then moved to Carlsbad for 10 years, where he taught for 14 years.

First teacher in Carlsbad history

"I am honored to be named the district's first teacher of the day," Hill said.

"I have been teaching for over 50 years in both Pecos and Carlsbad," Hill said.

Texas cavalry battled in Arkansas

By Bob L. Leaverton

Tales of the battle of Pea Ridge, known as the Arabbers of Arkansas, have been retold by the famous Historical Society of Texas. The battle was fought on March 9, 1862, and was one of the most important battles of the American Civil War. The Texas cavalry, led by Maj. Gen. John B. Magruder, fought against the Union Army commanded by Maj. Gen. Nathaniel P. Banks. The battle was a tactical victory for Magruder, but a strategic defeat for the Confederacy.

The battle began with both sides bracing for a fight. The Union Army was led by Maj. Gen. Nathaniel P. Banks and consisted of five divisions. The Confederate Army, led by Maj. Gen. John B. Magruder, had four divisions. The battle raged for several hours, with both sides suffering heavy losses. In the end, the Confederates were forced to retreat, leading to a Union victory.

The battle of Pea Ridge was a turning point in the Civil War for the Confederacy. It marked the end of their hopes for success in the west and paved the way for Union forces to advance further into Arkansas. The battle of Pea Ridge is remembered as one of the most significant battles of the Civil War.
