A father remembered fondly for humor, gentle guidance

By W.D. Leggett

"He was a caring, gentle man with a great sense of humor." That's how Robin Robinson, the father of four children, was remembered by his family and friends.

Robinson, who died at the age of 74 last month, was well loved and respected in the community. He was a member of the local Rotary Club and a long-time volunteer for the local school system.

His family said he was a loving husband and father who always put his family first. He was known for his sense of humor and his ability to make others laugh.

Robinson is survived by his wife, Mary, and their four children. A memorial service will be held next weekend at the local church.

Pennington seeking re-election to CISD board

By W.D. Leggett

Pennington, a long-time CISD board member, is seeking re-election to a third term. He says he's running because he wants to continue his work in improving the district's education system.

Pennington, who has served on the board for the past two years, says he's proud of the progress the district has made in recent years. He says he's looking forward to working with the new board to continue that progress.

Pennington is running against two other candidates, but he says he's confident he'll win.
