The Catfish Place

Cassidy Jones

The Perfect Combination: Great Food, Fast Service, and a Relaxing Atmosphere

The Catfish Place is owned and operated by Bob and Barbara Wright. Bob and Barbara opened up a new location in a quiet area, away from the hustle and bustle of the city. They decided to name their new location "The Catfish Place" because of their love for catfish and its unique taste.

The menu at The Catfish Place is diverse, offering a variety of dishes to satisfy different tastes. They specialize in catfish, but they also have options for chicken, beef, and seafood. The restaurant is known for its fried fish, catfish, and seafood dishes. They offer a variety of dipping sauces to complement the fish, including tartar sauce, cocktail sauce, and remoulade.

The Catfish Place is open from Monday to Saturday, from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. They also offer a lunch special from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. for $4.25. The lunch special includes a piece of fish, a side, and a drink.

The restaurant is located at 452 W. Loop 380, Longview, TX. They are open for dinner on Sunday from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. The Catfish Place is a great place to visit for a delicious meal and a relaxing atmosphere.
