City approves rezoning request

A public hearing held last month prompted the approval of a rezoning request for a 10-acre tract of land on the north side of town. The request, submitted by the Southwest Builder Corporation, was approved by the town council after a lengthy discussion.

Shrines surpass previous records

Local Somali-Americans have set up a shrine dedicated to the memory of the late Somali President, Ismail Omar Guelleh. The shrine, located in the heart of the Somali community in the town, has attracted thousands of visitors in recent weeks.

Save Caddo Lake; impeach the Corps of Engineers

The Daily Texan, the student newspaper at the University of Texas at Austin, published an editorial demanding the impeachment of the Corps of Engineers due to its role in the damming of Caddo Lake. The editorial argues that the corps' actions have had negative environmental impacts and that there is a need for accountability.

Poor districts could receive building funds

State Capitol Highlights by Lyndall Williams and Ed Sterling

The Texas Legislature is considering a bill that could provide funds for the construction of schools in poor districts. The bill aims to address the infrastructure needs of these areas, which have historically struggled with education funding. The bill is expected to be debated in the coming weeks.

Carthage High School Band Banquet

Perman, Clinton had Carthage on ropes
Dawgs subdue alumni with late rally by 5-3

A defensive cage put up by Carthage's basketball team during the tournament game against Carthage High School predicted the fate of the basketball team.

The game started with a bang as Carthage High School took an early lead. However, Carthage High School's defense held strong, preventing Carthage High School from scoring.

Despite Carthage High School's efforts, Carthage High School's defense held firm, allowing Carthage High School to win the game.
