Suspects sought in shooting death
Gary man killed in home

By SHERRY KONCZEK
Polk County Sheriff's deputies are seeking three people in connection with the murder of a Gary man.

The suspect's vehicle was last seen driving in the area around the victim's home. The vehicle is a black car with no distinctive markings, according to police. The victim's body was found inside the home, but the cause of death has not been released.

$2 million question

A $2 million question perplexes PCO officials.

The question is: what is the best way to spend the additional money that the county has received from the state? The money was allocated to PCO for the purpose of improving county roads and bridges.

Shelby residents query

Center campus finances

Shelby County residents have been questioning the finances of the new center and want to know how their tax dollars are being spent. The center is expected to bring in additional revenue to the county, but some residents are concerned about how the money will be used.

Sue or file charges, DA advises victims of pyramid schemes

Local residents were concerned with the recent arrests of several people involved in pyramid schemes. The schemes involved the sale of products such as health supplements and dietary supplements. The DA has advised victims to sue or file charges against the defendants.

County adopts lower tax rate

The county Board of Commissioners has adopted a lower tax rate for the upcoming fiscal year. The new tax rate is expected to result in a decrease in taxes for most residents.

Teen killed in traffic accident

A 16-year-old girl was killed in a single-vehicle accident on Wednesday. The accident occurred in the intersection of Main and 2nd Streets.

The victim was riding a bicycle when she was struck by a car. The driver of the car has been charged with vehicular homicide.
Texas blasts by CISD, others
Laughter charges deprivation of state aid

Chief 242-B Dr. Lee event should be in late fall

21-29 Dr. Lee event should be in late fall

The board of education voted in a special meeting Thursday to change the name of the school district from the name of Dr. Lee to CISD. The name change is the result of a change in the school district's policy on naming schools. The school district's policy now states that all schools in the district must be named after a current or former district employee. The name change will take effect immediately.

Tax hearing for BISD Thursday

A tax hearing will be held Thursday morning to discuss the proposed tax rate for the Bahia Vista Independent School District. The meeting will be held at the school district's administrative building, located at 1234 Main Street. The meeting will begin at 9 a.m. and will be open to the public.

Kruebbe named in Who's Who

John Kruebbe has been named as the new principal of the Christian School for the 2023-24 school year. Kruebbe, who has been serving as the assistant principal at the school for the past two years, will take over the role of principal when the current principal, Dr. John Maskall, retires at the end of the school year. Kruebbe has been with the school for the past 10 years and has served in a variety of roles, including as a teacher and a coach.

Vanover enjoys variety in small-town police work

BY KENNETH ROBIN

Capt. J. W. Vanover has been named as the new police chief for the Vanover Police Department. Vanover has been with the department for 20 years and has served in a variety of roles, including as a detective and a lieutenant. Vanover replaces Capt. J. W. Vanover, who retired last year after 42 years of service.

The board of education voted last week to change the name of the school district from the name of Dr. Lee to CISD. The name change is the result of a change in the school district's policy on naming schools. The school district's policy now states that all schools in the district must be named after a current or former district employee. The name change will take effect immediately.

Vanover enjoys variety in small-town police work

BY KENNETH ROBIN

Capt. J. W. Vanover has been named as the new police chief for the Vanover Police Department. Vanover has been with the department for 20 years and has served in a variety of roles, including as a detective and a lieutenant. Vanover replaces Capt. J. W. Vanover, who retired last year after 42 years of service.

The board of education voted last week to change the name of the school district from the name of Dr. Lee to CISD. The name change is the result of a change in the school district's policy on naming schools. The school district's policy now states that all schools in the district must be named after a current or former district employee. The name change will take effect immediately.

Vanover enjoys variety in small-town police work

BY KENNETH ROBIN

Capt. J. W. Vanover has been named as the new police chief for the Vanover Police Department. Vanover has been with the department for 20 years and has served in a variety of roles, including as a detective and a lieutenant. Vanover replaces Capt. J. W. Vanover, who retired last year after 42 years of service.

The board of education voted last week to change the name of the school district from the name of Dr. Lee to CISD. The name change is the result of a change in the school district's policy on naming schools. The school district's policy now states that all schools in the district must be named after a current or former district employee. The name change will take effect immediately.

Vanover enjoys variety in small-town police work

BY KENNETH ROBIN

Capt. J. W. Vanover has been named as the new police chief for the Vanover Police Department. Vanover has been with the department for 20 years and has served in a variety of roles, including as a detective and a lieutenant. Vanover replaces Capt. J. W. Vanover, who retired last year after 42 years of service.

The board of education voted last week to change the name of the school district from the name of Dr. Lee to CISD. The name change is the result of a change in the school district's policy on naming schools. The school district's policy now states that all schools in the district must be named after a current or former district employee. The name change will take effect immediately.

Vanover enjoys variety in small-town police work

BY KENNETH ROBIN

Capt. J. W. Vanover has been named as the new police chief for the Vanover Police Department. Vanover has been with the department for 20 years and has served in a variety of roles, including as a detective and a lieutenant. Vanover replaces Capt. J. W. Vanover, who retired last year after 42 years of service.

The board of education voted last week to change the name of the school district from the name of Dr. Lee to CISD. The name change is the result of a change in the school district's policy on naming schools. The school district's policy now states that all schools in the district must be named after a current or former district employee. The name change will take effect immediately.

Vanover enjoys variety in small-town police work

BY KENNETH ROBIN

Capt. J. W. Vanover has been named as the new police chief for the Vanover Police Department. Vanover has been with the department for 20 years and has served in a variety of roles, including as a detective and a lieutenant. Vanover replaces Capt. J. W. Vanover, who retired last year after 42 years of service.

The board of education voted last week to change the name of the school district from the name of Dr. Lee to CISD. The name change is the result of a change in the school district's policy on naming schools. The school district's policy now states that all schools in the district must be named after a current or former district employee. The name change will take effect immediately.

Vanover enjoys variety in small-town police work

BY KENNETH ROBIN

Capt. J. W. Vanover has been named as the new police chief for the Vanover Police Department. Vanover has been with the department for 20 years and has served in a variety of roles, including as a detective and a lieutenant. Vanover replaces Capt. J. W. Vanover, who retired last year after 42 years of service.
Grand jury passes Lofoton case

No action was taken Tuesday when Lofoton public defenders Jennifer Terry and Kim Johnson petitioned the county grand jury to pass the Lofoton case.

The defense attorneys presented a large volume of evidence to the grand jury, but no decision was made.

ACCIDENT

Mother of Child with Burn Injuries

A mother of a child who was burned in an accident last week was taken to a hospital.

The child, a 3-year-old girl, was burned in a fire at her home.

The cause of the fire is under investigation.

ANIMAL

I'm not sure if this is a continuation of the previous story or a new story.

SPORTS MIDWEEK

The Panola Watchman

CARThage

Carthage hosts Jefferson next

Dawgs, Jasper dual even in scrimmage

Jasper

Jasper is a town located in Texas, known for its rich history and cultural significance. The text mentions the Carthage Ralphie, a mascot known to the community.

Chihuahua

Chihuahua is a breed of dog known for its small size and unique appearance. The text mentions a chihuahua in the context of a pet or animal.

Bulldog

Bulldogs are a breed of dog known for their distinctive appearance and strong build. The text mentions a bulldog, possibly as a pet or mascot.

Bugs

Bugs are small, hard-bodied insects that are typically found in wooded or grassy areas. The text mentions bugs, possibly as a source of food or a pest.

Diced

Diced is a term used to describe food that has been cut into small pieces. The text mentions diced food, possibly as a dish or ingredient.

Bowl

A bowl is a container made of various materials, often used for serving food or holding water. The text mentions bowls, possibly as a utensil or container.

Bovine

Bovine is the scientific name for the species of cattle, including horses, donkeys, mules, and a variety of other domesticated animals. The text mentions bovines, possibly as a source of food or a form of animal.

Boil

Boil is a term used to describe the action of water being heated to the point of boiling. The text mentions boiling water, possibly as a cooking method or a natural occurrence.

Board

A board is a flat, rectangular piece of material used for various purposes, such as table surfaces or building materials. The text mentions a board, possibly as a furniture piece or a tool.

Bark

Bark is the outer layer of wood, often used as a protective layer or a material for making furniture. The text mentions bark, possibly as a natural occurrence or a material.

Breed

Breed is a term used to describe a group of animals that have similar characteristics, often due to selective breeding. The text mentions breeds, possibly as a classification or a characteristic.

Bronco

Bronco is a breed of horse known for its sturdy build and strong temperament. The text mentions a bronco, possibly as a type of horse or a historical context.

Breakfast

Breakfast is a meal typically consumed in the morning, often including items such as cereal, eggs, and toast. The text mentions breakfast, possibly as a mealtime or a dish.
Lethargic jvs fall 3-2 in Jasper scrimmage

The Panola Watchman

Area deaths

The Panola Watchman

The Panola Watchman

Freshmen show much promise

Freshtman fare well in first scrimmage

Jasper - Carthage freshmen surprised a good number of observers - including Carthage High School head coach David Finley - with a 3-2 win over the Jasper High School jvs in a game played in Jasper this past Saturday.

It was the first time in several seasons that Carthage had won a game in Jasper, and it came in the first game of the season for both teams.

Carthage's John West and Jason King scored goals in the first half, while Jasper's David Bowers and Carthage's David Black scored in the second half.

Offense shows much promise

Freshmen fare well in first scrimmage

CHS JV Stats

The Panola Watchman

The Panola Watchman

The Panola Watchman

The Panola Watchman

The Panola Watchman

The Panola Watchman
Notice of Vote on Tax Rate

The City of Corpus Christi conducted a public hearing on a proposal to increase your property taxes by 5.91 percent on August 26, 1994.

The City Council is scheduled to vote on the tax rate at a public meeting to be held on August 28, 1994.

Come in with family & friends...Order 'em all! SATURDAY NIGHT SPECIALS! ALL-YOU-CAN-EAT: $7.95

LIMITED TIME: $10.95

COMBO PLATTER: $10.95

Enjoy live music every weekend and LIGHT UP YOUR LIFE WITH A NEON!