Former pressman Smokey mourned

A lifelong newspaperman and former Panola Watchman staffer, Smokey Marsden, died Thursday in a local hospital.

Mr. Marsden, 72, of Carthage, was a newspaperman for four decades, starting his career at the Carthage Brand in 1942. He later worked at the Panola Watchman, where he served as a pressman for many years.

Mr. Marsden was born in Carthage and was a graduate of Carthage High School. He was a lifelong member of the Carthage Methodist Church and was active in many community affairs.

Marsden is survived by his wife, Ethel Marsden, and his son, David Marsden. Services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Carthage Funeral Home with burial to follow.

County joins superhighway talks

In the spirit of cooperation, Carthage City Manager Charles Thomas and County Judge Clifton Smith attended a meeting with highway officials from Crisfield, Carthage and others to discuss the proposed county highway.

The meeting was held at the Carthage City Hall where officials from the three cities discussed the potential benefits of a county highway.

The meeting was attended by representatives from the three cities, including Carthage City Manager Charles Thomas, Crisfield City Manager Clifton Smith, and the Panola County Judge.

The proposed county highway would connect Carthage and Crisfield, providing a much-needed link between the two communities. The project was supported by officials from both cities.

The meeting was a positive step towards the cooperation between the three cities on the proposed project.

Randy Reeder becomes quite a 'character' actor

In a move that has surprised many in the Panola County community, Randy Reeder has been cast in a prominent role in the upcoming movie "The Great Gatsby."

Reeder, known for his work in community theater and local productions, was recently approached by a casting director who was impressed by his talents.

The movie itself is a highly anticipated project, with a cast that includes some of Hollywood's biggest names.

The role that Reeder has been offered is that of a minor character in the film. However, his involvement is expected to bring attention to his abilities as an actor.

Ernest C. Smith and his wife, Mrs. Smith, were at the funeral service for Smokey Marsden.

Voters registration deadline approaching

The deadline for registering to vote in the November election is fast approaching. As of Oct. 1, individuals must register in person at the local county courthouse or by mail to be eligible to vote in the upcoming election.

The election is scheduled for Nov. 4, with the primary election held on Oct. 15.

The Panola County Democratic Executive Committee held a meeting this week to discuss the upcoming election.

Holiday toy drive accepting donations

Scurlock House is sharing its annual Christmas toy drive with the needs of Panola County families.

This year, the drive is accepting donations for toys and other gifts for children in need.

Donations can be dropped off at the Scurlock House on Main Street or at any of the local schools.

The drive is a way for the community to come together and help those in need during the holiday season.

Stay tuned for more information on how you can help.
