1994 in review

January
Carroll County Republican Party officials gathered last week to listen to the county’s first Republican Party meeting since the 1990s, held at the Carroll County Courthouse.

February
Papers for the newly formed Carroll County Republican Party were turned in at the courthouse last week, and the party’s first meeting was held.

March
Carroll County Democratic Party officials were met with a hostile reception at their meeting last week, held at the courthouse.

Postage rates increase Sunday

A larger format "G" is used instead of regular postage.

Recycle trees after holidays

A second holiday-themed event with a recycling program is scheduled for this weekend, and additional trees will be available for recycling.

MADD, Gramm salute driver safety

Local efforts to reduce drunk driving during the New Year holiday season were given a boost this week when organizers from MADD and Gramm held a news conference.

Officials take oath Saturday

Newly-elected and returning council members were sworn in at the courthouse.

Students head back to class

Area schools opened their doors to students on Monday, with a mix of excitement and nervousness among the students.

By SHERRY ROGGEN
A House fire completely destroyed the home of Helen Collins on Monday morning. Collins and her husband were out when the fire broke out.

BY JOHN SMITH
A Home fire completely destroyed the home of Helen Collins on Monday morning. Collins and her husband were out when the fire broke out.
Angels bring messages of inspiration

KnoY Your Heritage

by Lyda B. Lattimore

In reference, I often think of the godfather of my faith, Rev. Jose Sancho. He was a wise and kind man who taught me much about life and how to live it with integrity. He was a man of deep faith and a gentle spirit who always had a smile on his face. He was a true angel on earth, and I will always be grateful for the lessons he taught me.

Golden wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. "Bill" Ramey of College Station celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on May 19. They were married on May 19, 1963, in College Station. They have two children, Mrs. J. W. "J. W." Brown of College Station and Mr. W. S. "Bill" Ramey Jr. of College Station. They have four grandchildren.

Calendar of events

- Saturday, June 11, 2022, 7:00 p.m.: Summer Solstice Celebration at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City.
- Sunday, June 12, 2022, 10:00 a.m.: Palm Sunday at St. John's Church, College Station.
- Monday, June 13, 2022, 9:00 p.m.: Annual Memorial Day Service at the College Station Cemetery.

It's time once again to celebrate the arrival of summer. The warm sun and clear skies bring a sense of renewal and hope for the future. This year, we have plenty of events to look forward to, including:

- Celebrate the start of the summer season with a picnic at the local park.
- Attend a live performance at the local theater.
- Take a class at the local library.
- Enjoy a day at the beach or lake.

Turn to a friend

The people you see here are carrying on a tradition of trust, a history of personal growth and understanding. They have a heritage of professional service, that over the last 70 years has earned the confidence and trust of families in College Station.

This summer brings changes and these people are committed to adapting to those changes in order to provide you with better service, more options, and greener convenience.

The death of a loved one can be a traumatic, painful experience. It's comforting to know that you have someone you trust, ready to help.

When you need guidance and support planning a funeral, purchasing a monument, making or pre-arrangement, turn to a friend at Hawthorn Funeral Home.

Hawthorn Funeral Home

361 West Wellington Street
College Station, TX 77840

Phone: 979-693-3734
Fax: 979-693-3736

HawthornFuneralHome.com
Courthouse news

The Panola Watchman

Hospital news

The Panola Watchman

Police beat

Jet Water pump reported stolen

Wadee beat missing from county home

Wadee beat missing from county home

Health, Wealth, Happiness, Cheer... all the best in the coming New Year.
Performance
If you need a Ford or Mercury Call: Ray Tucker
We Will Beat Any Deal Or Fuel Your Tank Up!
1-800-New-FORD

Deadwood News
Thursday night was the Christmas party at the Deadwood Methodist Church. The Rev. Ron Tollefer and his wife, Ruth, welcomed everyone. The church was filled with people of all ages. The program included music, skits, and a Christmas play. The Rev. Tollefer spoke about the importance of celebrating Christmas with family and friends. He reminded everyone of the true meaning of Christmas: the birth of Jesus Christ. The evening ended with a delicious meal served by the church members. The Deadwood community is grateful for the hard work and dedication of the church members in organizing this event. We wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!