Charges dropped as victim recants

By SHERRY KOONCE

Some local merchants have filed charges of grand larceny against a former city councilman on the theory that he cashed checks written by someone else. The man, who is a member of the city council for the city of Cottonwood, has been charged with theft by receiving stolen property.

According to Cottonwood Police Chief Leon Hardin, the man had been arrested previously for the theft of property and had been charged with larceny.

A warrant was obtained for his arrest and he was taken into custody.

The man was taken to the Cottonwood Police Station and processed for booking.
