Ailing suspect's bond reduced

BY SHERRY ROONEY

The possibility of obtaining medical help existed in the release of a Park County man who was being held in Park County Jail for 12 days on charges of assault.

John Donald Deininger, 39, of Ranchester, was released last month after 12 days in jail. The man had been sentenced to 12 days to one year in jail for possession of a weapon, which he failed to report to the court.

Deininger was conditionally charged with assault, a second-degree felony, and possession of a weapon, a misdemeanor.

According to the county Jail, he was released from jail on January 28 because he failed to report to court.

Additively, Deininger's bond status is now being determined by the court.

Two fired, one resigns from road department

BY LAURA NEGRU

Two Park County employees were fired and one was allowed to resign last week.

The county commissioner decided to fire John and Gary Johnson last week after they were arrested on charges of assault and battery.

Gary Johnson was fired last week after he was arrested on charges of assault and battery for a traffic incident.

The commissioners decided to fire Johnson after he was arrested on charges of assault and battery.

Johnson, who has worked for the road department for 12 years, was fired in December after he was arrested on charges of assault and battery for a traffic incident.

After the incident, Johnson was fired by the commissioners.

The road department will begin searching for a new employee to replace Johnson.
