CISD adopts calendar

By SHERRY KOONCE
CISD school board members adopted this year's calendar at their regular meeting in the CISD Board Room on Monday, June 10. The calendar includes fall break from Aug. 25 through Sept. 8. The fall break is eight days longer than it was in previous years. The CISD Board Room is located at 11200 State Highway 6, Suite 200, in College Station. The board's next meeting is scheduled for July 16.

Family files suit in bull riding fatality

The family of a young man killed in a bull riding accident in April has filed a lawsuit against a rodeo.

Terry and Carolyn Carrell, the parents of Daniel Wayne Carrell, 20, have filed suit against Pacific Coast Professional Bulls, Inc., alleging negligence in failing to protect their son while he was riding.

The suit, filed in Bell County, alleges that the bull riding company failed to provide proper protection for the rider. It also claims that the company failed to adequately train the bull.

Longhorns lose two of three in Dallas tourney

DALLAS - Last three Longhorns seemed less than the last Longhorn. They were the ones who seemed at least a little less than their best in the two games Sunday that ended their tourney in the Dallas County Fairgrounds Convention Center.

After suffering back-to-back losses in the O. U. U. S. C. and U. C. L. A. tourney, the Longhorns seemed to be facing their biggest challenge yet in the Dallas County Fairgrounds Convention Center.

The Longhorns were stopped by the Oklahoma State Cowboys, 75-70, in the first game, and the University of Texas Longhorns, 72-69, in the second game.

Hottest jobs for women in computers, health care

In the on-line format, women developers often work like traditional print writers, creating writers and editors. Sensing a vast market, they develop stories or package and promote previously published material.

1. On-Line Services Providers: These women provide services that are accessed on-line or via a phone call.

2. Marketing on-line services means working in the field to acquire users with the promise of a large number of users and high profits. The American Marketing Association estimates the number of online advertisers will grow from 9,000 to 1,000,000.

3. Software Programmers: Software programmers hold the key to making computer programs work. The number of software programmers will grow from 700,000 to 1,000,000, and the number of on-line services providers will increase from 5,000 to 50,000.

HEALTH CARE

1. Advanced Practice Nurses: These nurses work in one advanced-practice specialty, such as pediatrics, geriatrics, or oncology. They provide care that is comparable to that of physicians.

2. Physical Therapists: Physical therapists hold the key to helping people achieve maximum levels of function. The number of physical therapists will increase from 100,000 to 200,000.

3. Family Care Managers: Family care managers help families manage the care of elderly parents or other family members. The number of family care managers will increase from 10,000 to 100,000.

4. Mental Health Workers: Mental health workers help people deal with mental health issues. The number of mental health workers will increase from 50,000 to 100,000.

5. Home Health Care Providers: Home health care providers help people manage their own care in the comfort of their own homes. The number of home health care providers will increase from 500,000 to 1,000,000.

6. Medical Assistants: Medical assistants help doctors and nurses provide care. The number of medical assistants will increase from 50,000 to 100,000.

7. Geriatric Care Managers: Geriatric care managers help elderly people manage their care. The number of geriatric care managers will increase from 10,000 to 50,000.

8. EAP Counselors: EAP counselors help employees deal with personal and emotional issues. The number of EAP counselors will increase from 1,000 to 10,000.

9. Human Resource Managers: Human resource managers help employees find jobs. The number of human resource managers will increase from 100,000 to 500,000.

10. Special Education Teachers: Special education teachers help children with special needs. The number of special education teachers will increase from 100,000 to 100,000.

Approximately 700,000 new positions will be available in 2005, and the number of on-line services providers will increase from 5,000 to 50,000.
