Carjacking suspect arrested Thursday

By SHERREY KOONCE

A combined investigation by the Montgomery Police Department and City of Little Rock Police Department on Sunday morning resulted in the arrest of a suspect wanted in a Little Rock auto theft

Before 6:30 am, 21-year-old Marcus J. Johnson was observed running through the area of the intersection of Main Street and Palm Street near the apartment complex. A police officer followed him and was able to apprehend him without incident.

Johnson was transported to the Conway Police Department for booking.

Taco Bell plans site

Southern Mailman, of Jackson, Miss., was able to contact a Taco Bell representative in Little Rock at the time of the incident. According to the representative, the incident occurred due to an error in the store's ordering process. The representative apologized for the inconvenience and stated that they are working to improve their processes to prevent similar incidents in the future. The store manager also expressed regret for the incident and pledged to take steps to ensure that such errors do not occur again.

1. When you put that cheeseburger on your plate and start shoveling it down, don't forget to look up and say grace.
2. Before you dig that hole, make sure you have the right equipment or a bucket! Otherwise, you'll be in a lot of trouble.
3. You've got to keep hidden from those pesky cats if you want to keep those power lines.
4. When selling, launch your best selling line and try not only to keep your store open but also to keep those power lines.
