August 1849 was a busy time
Know Your Heritage by Leila B. LaGrone

A little over a century ago there was a busy time in LaGrone history. The year was 1849 and the events were the opening of the first school and the laying of the cornerstone of the first church in the town. The school was a one-room schoolhouse built on land donated by the town's founder, Mr. LaGrone. The cornerstone for the church was laid by the Reverend Mr. LaGrone, who had served as the town's first minister.
