A Wednesday night wreck on the Carthage Highway claimed the life of a local teen and an out-of-state man.

Lake board splits over CPA raise

By Laura Nagel
THE PANOLA WATCHMAN

The question of whether to continue with its current CPA or adopt one for future CSAs dominated the board's meeting Tuesday.

Medicaid cuts may hit close to home

Panola County could see considerable cuts in Medicaid funding under reform proposals under consideration in Washington. A House subcommittee has recommended that Medicaid cuts be on the order of $4-5 billion between 1996 and 2001 in Congress's proposed new formula.

School election set for Saturday

If early voting is any indication, Carthage, Panola County and the county will be busy today when school taxpayers, apparently in favor of running down to a higher school district, will vote on a bond issue to build a new elementary school.

ABE: 118 individuals have enrolled in that district's teaching program, which plans to open next September. In the meantime, the district is meeting about $32,000 per day in usable property values. Charges on the property for the school board's consideration next year, but a vote of the board, if scheduled, is expected to be on the agenda.

Special to The News

Many more families struggling to make ends meet now have a broader base of support. One of those families is the food bank, which helps people access healthy, affordable food. The food bank offers a variety of services, including meal programs, nutrition education, and community events. It also partners with other organizations to provide emergency assistance. In addition, the food bank promotes awareness of hunger and encourages community involvement in solving the problem. Our family is grateful for the food bank's support and commitment to helping others.

Card of thanks

We would like to express our appreciation to our family and friends who have supported us through the ups and downs of the past year. We are truly grateful for your love and kindness, and we look forward to continued support in the future. Thank you for your continued support.

Know Your Heritage

Laila B. LaGrone

A century ago, and just the 1860's, October was a busy time on the farm. The last of the vegetables were harvested and the fields were cleared. Women were busy preparing for the winter months ahead. The children were still at school, but the men were busy with the harvest. The pantry was filled with canned and preserved vegetables, and the fields were bare. The women were busy washing and ironing the clothes for the winter months. The men were busy building and repairing the fences and gates. The children were busy playing outside, and the dogs were barking in the yard. The was a sense of peace and contentment in the air.

Control clock offensively, smother Buc's 22-8 in league opener

Frosh dominate PT in 17-4A opener

LONGVIEW - In the past week, A.J. John Augstein's Carthage program has been the subject of favorable comparisons. The Bulldogs have won three straight games and have moved into the top flight of the 17-4A district standings behind the junior varsity team's performance. The Frosh squad, coached by John Augstein, has scored 12 touchdowns in its last two games and blanked Carthage's opponent, the Lion. The Lions' defense has been effective in limiting the Bulldogs' rushing attack, which has averaged just 100 yards per game. The Bulldogs' offense has been struggling, with quarterback Billy Brown completing just over 50% of his passes. The Lions' defense has held the Bulldogs to just 10 points per game, the lowest output of the season. The Lions' offense has been led by running back Tim Smith, who has rushed for 300 yards and five touchdowns in the last two games. The Lions' defense has been credited with shutting down the Bulldogs' running game, allowing just 70 yards per game. The Lions' defense has also forced two turnovers in the last two games, while the Bulldogs' offense has failed to score a touchdown in either game.
Rylander has high hopes for natural gas industry

By Dona Houseman
The Panola Watchman

The possibility of bringing natural gas to Rylander is one of the hot topics being discussed in the community. With the recent announcement of a new pipeline project, many residents are excited about the potential benefits this could bring.

The pipeline project would bring natural gas to the area, which could be used for a variety of purposes. Some residents believe it could help reduce energy costs and improve overall quality of life in the community. Others see it as an opportunity to attract new businesses and create jobs.

However, there are also concerns about the potential impact on the environment and the safety of the project. Some residents are worried about the potential for leaks and spills, while others are concerned about the long-term effects on the local ecosystem.

Despite these concerns, many residents are hopeful about the potential benefits of the project. They believe it could be a major boost to the local economy and improve the quality of life for everyone in Rylander.
Spillway repairs finished

Repairs on the spillway at Lake Fork are now complete, as noted in a recent article in the local newspaper. The spillway area is now open to the public for recreational use. The project was funded by a federal grant, and the repairs were completed by a local construction company.

Class of 1945 planning reunion

The Carnegie High School Class of 1945 is celebrating their fifty year anniversary with a reunion. We are now at the point looking for names of our classmates so we can get a class list and coordinate a date and time for the official reunion. We also plan to have a special guest speaker (or speakers). The Class of 1945 is the oldest class still living and we hope to be able to come together at some point. We would like to hear from you. Please call.
