THE PANOLA WATCHMAN

"It looks like we've got another great day," said Richard Lott, owner of the Lott's Flower Shop in Glasgow. "We've been seeing a lot of people come in today to pick up their orders. It's been busy, but we're happy to be able to help spread some cheer this holiday season."

"I'm really pleased with the support we've been getting," said Lott. "People are really enjoying the holiday season and they want to share that with others."

"It's been a great year for us," said Lott. "We've been able to grow and expand our business, and we're looking forward to an even better year next year."

"We appreciate everyone's support," said Lott. "We couldn't do it without you, and we're grateful for the opportunity to serve you."

This year had the most unusual case of my career. The 1994 favor made from the bloom of flowers in the flower shop. I had to ask them if they could make the flowers for a funeral. I was given a very unusual case when a 19 year old girl died from a car accident. The family was very thankful for the flowers. The flowers were delivered in Carthage. My next case will be a man who was shot by a police officer. It is called the shooting of the year. The flowers were delivered in Carthage.
