Program's gifts not unwarranted

As Christina mentioned in her family profile photo album, she has a large assortment of gifts she received in her family history. The collection includes items from various periods of time, ranging from the early 1900s to modern-day gifts. The gifts include heirloom pieces, family heirlooms, and personal items that have been passed down through generations. Christina explained that the gifts are from different family members, including grandparents, parents, and siblings, and they were chosen based on their historical significance and sentimental value. She mentioned that the family is very proud of the collection and that it is a testament to the family's legacy. The gifts are displayed in a special room in the family home and are carefully preserved. The family enjoys sharing the story behind each gift with visitors and shows them the items during family gatherings. The collection is a reminder of the family's history and the values that have been passed down through generations.

Beat San Jac, maintain third place tie

Fillies in key TEC contests this week

Panola Fillies have come to know the frustration of being at the bottom of the TEC standings, and maybe that's why they are in the position to make a move this week. They've got a chance to climb the ladder with a win over San Jac on Thursday night at the Fillies' home court. The Fillies (8-6, 3-3) are currently in fourth place, while San Jac (10-4, 4-2) is leading the league.

5. East Bernard 5-9, 1-5

Panola's record includes wins over all but one TEC team, including a 66-58 victory over San Jac on February 10. The Fillies have been led by senior forward Sarah Johnson, who averages 16.5 points per game.

This week, Panola will face San Jac for the second time this season. The Fillies are looking to make up for their earlier loss to San Jac, and they're hoping to maintain their third-place standing in the TEC.

Panola's horsepower isn't what it used to be Panola's basketball team is in a position of struggle this season. The Ponies, who are currently 3-9 on the year, are playing in the heavyweight division of the TEC, and they're facing some tough opponents.

"Panola's not what it used to be," Panola head coach Mike Johnson said. "We've got some talented players, but we're not playing our best basketball. We need to focus on our defense and turn over the ball less." The Ponies have struggled to contains their opponents, allowing over 70 points per game.

Homemade accessories make for a perfect wedding day

The wedding day is one of the most important days in a woman’s life. She wants everything, from her gown to the flowers in the food served at the reception, to be perfect. Most of all, she wants her neckline of the big day to be spotless.

Homemade, handcrafted bridal accessories can help make those moments special. A lace-trimmed ring pillow, made of the same fabric as the bridal gown, contains details that are hard to find in a store-bought pillow.

The steps to hand-make handmade pillow and pillow wedding accessories is as important. One satisfactory complete guide to free cutting, especially for a meaningful event, as well as a wide range of specialty products now found at craft stores. "says Susan Brandt, assistant executive director/designer of com-
r emissions for the Hobby Industry

Association. The following ring pillow will add a personal touch to the wedding day. After the ceremony, it can be used as a decoration in the bedroom or kept in a safe place for use in the next family wedding.

Ring Pillow:

You need 24-inch wide white fabric for pillow back and front. 11-inch square of still fabric for the front facing. 10-inch square knife-edge pillow form. 2/3 yards of 2/3-inch wide lace for ruffle. 1/2 yard of they lacing.

Directions: (1/2-inch seam allowance)

1. Cutting: Fold

in half the

pillow form and cut an 11-inch square

pillow front and two 11-

inch by 11-inch pillow

backs.

2. Pillow Front:

Piano wire or 1/4-inch wire in the seams of the pillow front and to pin together. Have right

sides together and sides

even. Pull up gathers to fit pillow. Stitch along the piping seam.

3. Pillow Back:

With right sides facing, pin the pillow front to pillow back with right sides even. Turn the edge out through the open-ning. Stitch in place with small stitches.

4. Insert the pillow form and close the stop.

5. Sew the ruffle to the pillow form along the edge of the form.

Wedding Tips:

Honeymoon planning is one of the most important parts of your wedding. Many couples choose to plan their honeymoon in advance to ensure that it is a memorable experience. If you plan to travel to a foreign country, it is important to research the country's culture, customs, and weather conditions. A trip to a foreign country can be an exciting experience, and planning ahead can help ensure that your trip is enjoyable.
