THE PANOLA WATCHMAN

A former Panola County Appointed Board member in 1980 and 1981 has been named as the new chairman of the Appointed Board for the Shaw region. This is the first time in almost 30 years that a Shaw resident has been the board member.

Releases of noxious vapors leads to limited evacuation

By Delbert Humphries
THE PANOLA WATCHMAN

Grave vapors emanating from a gas well in the city of Carthage have led to the temporary evacuation of some businesses and homes. Panola County Chief Deputy Sheriff John DeBressen said the situation is under control, but added that the evacuation is necessary until the gas can be vented safely.

Congressional candidate visits county

U.S. congressional candidate in the 9th District, Ann Howard, sought support in Panola County Tuesday and Wednesday. Howard, who is running against incumbent U.S. Congresswoman Stephanie Tubbs Jones, visited several locations in the county, including the Panola County Fair and the Carthage Area Chamber of Commerce.

Local group aims to cut cost of calling neighbors

A local committee is working to make calling neighbors cheaper for residents of the Carthage area. The committee is being developed by the Texas Legislative Council's Local Government Unit, which oversees issues related to local government.

Fire district plans first meeting

Members of the Panola County Fire District will meet Thursday, February 20, in the community center in Carthage. The meeting is the first for the newly formed district, which is being established to provide fire protection for the Carthage area.

Ban on burning issued

Extremely dry weather conditions have led to a ban on burning in the Carthage area. The ban, which was issued on February 18, is in effect until further notice.

Indians beat up Dawgs in finale

JACKSONVILLE — Cherokee High School’s Lady Indians took on the Lady Dawgs of Jacksonville High School on Tuesday night and beat them 1-0 in a tight contest.

The Lady Indians, under the leadership of Coach Miller, have been working hard to prepare for this match. They have been practicing their shots and defense strategies to ensure their victory.

Coach Miller said, "We’ve been working hard on our defense and attack, and I’m proud of the team for pulling through in this match."

The Lady Dawgs, led by Coach Clark, were not able to score despite their best efforts. Coach Clark said, "We had a few chances, but we couldn’t capitalise on them. Congratulations to Cherokee for their win."

The game was held at the Cherokee High School stadium and was attended by a large crowd.

Twilite bowling results

The Twilite bowling tournament was held at the local bowling alley last weekend. The tournament was a huge success, with over 100 participants taking part.

The final results were:

1. Johnson Family - 1230 points
2. Smith Brothers - 1220 points
3. Brown Sisters - 1210 points
4. Thompson Twins - 1200 points

The tournament was well-attended, with many bowlers showing their skills and enjoying the friendly competition.

For Telephone Security Establish an "Ask, Don't Tell" Policy

When it comes to telephone security, there are a few things you should keep in mind. First, always be on the lookout for any suspicious activity around your home or business. If you see anything that doesn’t look right, don’t hesitate to call the police.

Secondly, make sure that your phone system is properly secured. This means having a strong password and making sure that your phone is updates with the latest security patches.

Lastly, always be aware of who you are talking to. If you receive a call from someone you don’t know, ask for their name and affiliation. If they are legitimate, they will provide that information. If not, hang up and report the call to the police.

Remember, the key to security is to be vigilant and proactive. By following these simple tips, you can protect yourself and your loved ones from the dangers of telephone security.

Delinquent taxpayers targeted by CISD

Lawsuits against property tax delinquents

In an ongoing battle against property tax delinquency, the CISD is filing lawsuits against property owners who owe taxes on their properties. The lawsuits are a part of the district's efforts to collect unpaid taxes from property owners.

The lawsuits seek to recover the unpaid taxes, interest, and penalties associated with the properties. The district is working with a law firm to handle the cases and is optimistic about the success of the lawsuits.
