Beckville parents speak out in support of coach

By Sherry Koones  THE PANOLA WATCHMAN

Alto personal Beckville Sends another sign of support this morning of the school’s new athletic programs, one which was unsealed this morning at the school’s main office. The sign, which was placed on the school’s front desk, contained a message of support for the new athletic programs. The sign stated, “Beckville parents, we support the new athletic programs. We believe in the future of our children and want to see them succeed. We encourage all parents to come and support our students.” The sign was signed by a group of parents who have been actively involved in the school’s new athletic programs. They believe that the new programs will provide opportunities for their children to excel and will help them develop the skills they need to succeed in life. They also believe that the new programs will help to build the school’s community and increase the pride of the community. The sign was placed on the school’s front desk to show their support for the new athletic programs. They believe that by supporting the new programs, they can help to ensure that their children have the best possible education and opportunities. They encourage other parents to come and support their students and to help to build the school’s community. The message on the sign is clear: “We believe in the future of our children and want to see them succeed. We encourage all parents to come and support our students.”

Vote LEO GRAVES

Leo Graves is shown gathering up hundreds of dollars of signs that have been vandalized. Since the campaign began, Graves has had many problems with his signs being destroyed. The other candidates have not had this problem. Graves estimates that he still stands on the principles of God, according to Romans 12:10. "Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if thine enemy thirst, give him drink; for in so doing shall thou heap coals of fire on his head. Do not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good." Leo Graves would like to be your next County Commissioner Precinct #3.

Please vote for me on April 9

Ponies back in race after sweeping two

Ponies take on badminton and track this week

The Ponies have had a busy week, with matches in both badminton and track. On Monday, they hosted the Track and Field team for a dual meet, and on Tuesday, they played host to the Panola College Bobcats in a badminton match. The Ponies won both matches, solidifying their position in the TEAC standings.

Carthage lock-up raises over $8,700 for muscular dystrophy

Carthage lock-up raises over $8,700 for muscular dystrophy

The Carthage lock-up has raised over $8,700 for muscular dystrophy. The event was held at the Carthage, Texas Country Club, and featured a range of activities to raise funds for the cause. The proceeds will be donated to the Muscular Dystrophy Association to support their efforts in finding a cure for the disease.

The event included a raffle, live music, and a silent auction. Local businesses and individuals donated items for the auction, and a large crowd turned out to support the cause.

The event was a success, and the organizers are grateful for the support of the community. They hope that this event will continue to raise awareness and funds for muscular dystrophy in the future.
