ARB votes not to continue leased lot taxation appeal

By Daniel Humphries

The battle over whether or not a proposed lot on Lark Marrow should be taxed首饰 the last breath Tuesday morning prompting a decision from the Panola County’s Appointed Board of Assessors to uphold the appeal on the lot.

After more than two years of toil, representing the interests of the owner of the Marrow lot and the Reagan family, the owner of the lot, packing a small crowd in the Courthouse Annex Wednesday, opposed the decision, "We are not going to give up without a fight," said the owner of the lot, packing the entire building. The owner of the lot, said the owner of the lot, or the owner of the lot, or the owner of the lot, plaintiff is sure that public support for the lot will be at least doubled by the judge’s decision, and the judge’s decision, and the judge’s decision, and the judge’s decision.

The law firm of Marrow and Associates on Monday asked the Panola County Board of Assessors to take a look at the Marrow lot and determine if it should be taxed. The board of assessors ruled in favor of the lot owner, but the law firm has decided to appeal the decision because of public support for the lot.

The Toledo West End

Dear Editor:

The 1986 season of community theater is over and we have had a wonderful experience. We have had the opportunity to watch several different productions, and we all agree that the talent and dedication of the actors and crew is outstanding.

The plays we have seen have been diverse, ranging from dramas to musicals. We have also appreciated the variety of venues where these performances have taken place, including local high schools, community centers, and even private homes.

Overall, we believe that the community theater has provided a valuable opportunity for our community to come together and enjoy the arts. We hope that this tradition will continue for many years to come.

Sincerely,

What's Your Pleasure?

"As a child, my family and I were active in the community through church, youth programs and civic groups. My interest in community involvement started with my membership in the Cub Scouts. I have always enjoyed being part of the community and feel that it is important for everyone to be involved in some way. I have been involved with the Cub Scouts for over ten years and have enjoyed every minute of it. I have made many lasting friendships and have learned valuable life lessons through my involvement in the program."

Bobcats hopeful pigs will fly on Halloween at Hallsville

Carthage faces Cats, ghosts of their past

HALLSVILLE - The pigs are on the loose again this Halloween, and the Bobcats are hoping their ghosts will fly once more.

It all started in 1985, when the Bobcats faced the Cats in a high school football game. The Bobcats were leading 34-0, and the Cats had given up 20 straight points in the fourth quarter. But then the Cats came back with a late fourth-quarter touchdown to tie the game 34-34.

The Cats then scored a last-second touchdown to win 40-34, and the Bobcats were never the same. From that day on, the Bobcats were haunted by the ghosts of the Cats, and they've been trying to fly ever since.

This year, the Bobcats are hoping to break the curse once and for all. They're playing the Cats in a high school football game, and they're determined to win.

"We've been trying to fly for years," said Bobcats head coach Mike Smith. "This year, we're going to make it happen."

Local SWCD to have new responsibilities

"As a result of the 1995 Farm Bill," Jim Thrasher, chairman of the SWCD, said, "the SWCDs will have increased responsibilities." The bill has increased funding for conservation programs and will make the SWCDs responsible for administering some of these programs. The SWCDs will have to work with local communities, farmers, and other stakeholders to implement these programs. The increased funding and responsibilities will help to improve the soil health and water resources in the Brazos River Basin.

"I support a balanced budget amendment. But I oppose Medicare cuts to get it done."

--Max Sandlin

Max Sandlin supports a balanced budget amendment and he will work to balance the budget. But Sandlin opposes efforts to cut Medicare to get the job done.

Instead, Sandlin believes we should forgo the wealthy nations, like Japan and Germany, to pay for our defense. Sandlin commonsense approach would save billions of dollars and help avoid cuts in Medicare for senior citizens.

Cable TV Versus Satellite TV
Consumer Update. Here Are the Facts:

■ UPDATE:
Consumers today are faced with a growing variety of ways to receive TV signals into their homes. On the rise are new technologies—new satellite TV services, premium channels, special events and niche programming.

You may even be thinking of buying one of the new satellite services called Direct Broadcast Satellite (DBS) satellite services. Before you do, consider these facts before committing any new technology.

■ Five Reasons Cable Beats Satellite TV

1. Equipment You’ll Need To Purchase:
   None.

2. Cost For Additional Outlets:
   Free.

3. Local, News, Sports, Weather:
   Only on cable.

4. Approximate Equipment Purchase Cost:
   None.

5. Costs For Equipment Repairs:
   None.

Source: Cable TV Industry Association

Cable sends you one bill. With DBS you get two. The DBS bill comes directly from your satellite dish provider. Also, if you subscribe to a premium channel, you may have another separate phone bill from that company.

Cable sends you one bill with all your channels. DBS delivers two. With DBS, you can only receive the channels you purchase, which means you'll likely be paying for channels you don't watch.

Cable offers a larger choice of programming. DBS offers only limited programming choices. You can't choose the programs you want to watch, and the programs you do watch are subject to the dish's location.

Cable offers more local programming. DBS offers only limited local programming. With cable, you can watch local news, sports and weather without leaving home.

Cable offers more reliable service. DBS offers only limited service reliability. Cable delivers a reliable signal every time, while DBS signals can be blocked by clouds or rain.

What if I want more than one TV?
Cable is the winner in this category. Cable allows you to hook multiple TVs to the same cable system and you can watch the same channel on all the TVs. DBS requires you to purchase additional dishes and receivers for each additional TV you want to watch.

■ What If I Want More Than One TV?
Cable offers multiple TV sets. You can hook up multiple TVs to the same cable system and receive the same channel on all the TVs. DBS requires you to purchase additional dishes and receivers for each additional TV you want to watch.
