Judge McPherson Takes First Oath

BISD delays decision on teacher appeal

School board to make final determination Thursday

Longview man arrested after slow speed chase

Newly-elected County Court-at-Law Judge Rich McPherson took his oath of office recently at the home of the late Judge J. W. Nixon and Justice J. R. Morgan, who administered the oath.

The new judge will serve a term of four years, the same as the other three judges.

McPherson was born in Marion County, Texas, and has lived in the county for most of his life.

He was educated at East Texas State University and received his law degree from South Texas College of Law.

McPherson has been practicing law for 15 years and is a member of the American Bar Association and the Texas Bar Association.

He is married to the former Glenda Davis and they have two children, John and Jennifer.

McPherson is a member of the Longview Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club.

The new judge replaces the late Judge J. W. Nixon, who died in January.
OFFICERS MAKE THREE DRUG BUSTS

Two busts in less than a week have shown an increase in drug activity in the county.

One bust resulted in the capture of a man driving a stolen car. After being arrested, the man was taken to the county jail. The stolen car was recovered.

The second bust resulted in the seizure of a large quantity of marijuana. The suspect was arrested and charged with possession of marijuana.

VETERANS

The Veterans Affairs Department has received a gift of $10,000 from the local chapter of the American Legion. The funds will be used to support the veterans who are in need.

CHASE

A woman was the victim of a purse snatching in the downtown area. The suspect was last seen running towards the park.

ERIES

The school board has approved a new policy on the use of technology in the classroom. The policy will go into effect next month.

ARREST REPORT

A man was arrested for stealing a bicycle from a local store. The bicycle was recovered with the help of the local police.

DAYS GONE BY

November 1994

November 1994 is considered the peak of the oil rush in the town of Westland. The oil boom was at its height, and the town was bustling with activity. The town and its people were working tirelessly to capitalize on the oil wealth. The atmosphere was electric, with a sense of excitement and prosperity that was palpable. The oil fields were being worked day and night, and the steady hum of machinery could be heard throughout the town. The oil wealth brought a surge of investment, with new businesses opening up to meet the demands of the growing population. The town was experiencing a period of unprecedented growth and prosperity that would last for years to come.

Fillies rip Shreveport Southern by 92-34

For the second time this season, the Packers (16-1) rolled over a team from the Southern University of Shreveport in a convincing fashion.

"We held them to half their season average," said Coach Davis. "They made a lot of turnovers and shot very poorly from the field." The Packers had 79 points on 44% shooting, while Shreveport Southern was held to 34 points on 24% shooting.

Ponies defeat Eastfield, 73-70

Ponies (12-4) came back in the second half and defeated Eastfield (9-7) in a hard-fought battle.

"Eastfield had the upper hand for most of the game," said Coach Johnson. "But we fought back and eventually won." The Ponies scored 43 points in the second half and defeated Eastfield 73-70.

Koch Gateway to expand East Texas pipeline capacity

Koch Gateway has announced plans to expand its pipeline capacity in East Texas. The expansion will increase the pipeline's ability to transport crude oil to refineries and storage facilities in the region.

"This expansion is a direct response to the growing demand for crude oil in East Texas," said Koch Gateway CEO. "We are excited to continue investing in our infrastructure to meet the needs of our customers."
