Local man charged with Nov. 18 date rape

By Sherry Kopec

An invitation to dinner at a home for a Catholic woman led to an arrest for attempted murder and/or rape.

According to DePence, Sherry Kopec was invited to a residence in County of Batsto to have dinner. She arrived at the residence and was met by a woman who was dressed in black. The woman told Kopec that she was going to get dinner for them.

Sherry had been drinking heavily earlier in the day and was feeling very anxious about the situation. She decided to go with the woman and see where it would take her.

Upon questioning, however, the woman asserted a very different account of the events. Apparently, Sherry Kopec had threatened to harm the woman and her family. She had been drinking heavily all day and was becoming very aggressive.

Local law enforcement officers arrived at the residence and arrested Sherry Kopec for attempted murder and/or rape. She was taken into custody at the residence and held for trial.

The man was released on $50,000 bail and has been ordered to attend counseling for alcohol and drug abuse.

The man is scheduled to appear in court on December 17th at 9:00am to face charges.

County health officials advise to get influenza vaccination soon

As the weather gets colder and meaner, people are spending more time indoors. This can lead to an increased risk of influenza. To prevent illness, county health officials are reminding residents to get their influenza vaccination.

According to Patti Corbitt, director of health services, the vaccination is the best way to prevent illness. She stated that the vaccine is effective and has saved many lives.

The vaccine is available at the Health Department, and it is strongly recommended that everyone get vaccinated. The vaccine is also free for children and seniors.

It is important to get vaccinated early to ensure adequate protection. The vaccine typically takes about 2 weeks to become effective.

The vaccine is recommended for anyone who is at risk for complications from influenza. This includes pregnant women, children under 5, and adults over 65.

Community Thanksgiving service slated for Sunday at Central Baptist

The service will begin at 2pm on November 25th at Central Baptist Church. The service is free and open to the public.

The service will include a variety of music and readings. The service will also feature a guest speaker, who will discuss the importance of giving and helping others.

For more information, call Pastor Tyler at 695-2509 or visit the church website at www.centralbaptistchurch.com.
