Trooper, deputy make record marijuana bust

By Sherry Koone
Toledo Blade

More than 50 million worth of marijuana was seized for the city of New York last week, making it the largest single seizure of marijuana in the history of the city, according to police officials.

The bust, weighing approximately 5,000 pounds, was made on July 5 at the scene of a police investigation into a drug ring.

Nearly 40 officers were involved in the operation, which lasted for several hours.

Two drug dealers were arrested and at least four others were taken into custody.

Ritter letter to former CHS coach discovered

By Daniel Hauprichter
The Panola Watchman

The letter, written by former head coach John Ritter, has been discovered in the attic of a former player's home.

Ritter, who coached the team for 15 years, is known for his tough coaching style and his ability to turn around struggling programs.

The letter, written on a piece of lined paper, contains some unflattering comments about the team's performance.

Panola College homecoming events set for Saturday, Sunday

Homecoming events at Panola College have been announced for this weekend, with a variety of activities planned for students to enjoy.

The weekend will begin on Friday with a homecoming parade through the downtown area.

On Saturday, there will be a football game, followed by a dance and a fireworks display.

Sunday will feature a pancake breakfast and a tailgate party in front of the campus.

Fort Worth journalist to open PC lecture series February 12

Fort Worth journalist and author will be the first speaker in the 1997 Panola College Public Affairs Lecture Series.

The event, which is free and open to the public, will take place on Thursday, February 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the Campus Center.

The lecture series is sponsored by the Panola College Public Affairs Committee, which is dedicated to bringing prominent figures to campus to discuss important issues.
Cemetery vandals arrested

There were several men and boys engaged in a destructive act in a cemetery near the downtown area. The police were called and arrived on the scene quickly. The group of vandals was dispersed and taken into custody. The damage caused by their actions was extensive and the community is in shock. The police are looking into the matter further.

BUST

The bust comes just at a bad time for the city. The police department has been struggling to control the crime rate, and this incident is only a small part of the larger problem. The community is calling for more action to be taken against these criminals. The mayor has vowed to take strong measures to address the issue.

The offenses in question include burglary, theft, and vandalism. The police are working hard to solve these cases and bring the perpetrators to justice. The community is asked to be vigilant and report any suspicious activity.

CLARIFICATIONS

According to the police, the term "offense" was used to refer to the crimes committed. The police clarified that they are working to ensure that the community is informed of their efforts to solve these cases.
