Officers solve burglary case

A tip from a passing motorist and a swift response by a police officer led to the arrest of a suspect in a recent burglary.

The tip led officers to a vehicle that had been taken from the business owner's property. The suspect was found inside the vehicle, and he was arrested without incident.

The suspect, identified as John Smith, was charged with burglary and theft. He is scheduled to appear in court next month.

On Kentucky Derby Day, you'll come out smelling like a rose.

T-Shirts, prizes, crawfish boil and more.

It's hard not to come out a winner this Saturday, when we celebrate Kentucky Derby Day.

We'll start off with an official Kentucky Derby T-shirt, free with your paid admission while supplies last. (Get here early, we'll open at 10 a.m.)

Then, enter a fun contest where you pick the Derby winner, and get in the running for cash prizes of $2,000, $1,000 or $500.

And don't forget our traditional crawfish boil and lively Cajun music. Plus you'll enjoy the non-stop excitement of thoroughbred racing from 10 different tracks.

Remember, the Downs is the place to be, where you can wager on the run for the roses. So why run anywhere else?
