Plans for new driver's license office hit snag

By Daniel R. Pruit

Plans to expand the Driver's License Office in the Panola National Guard Armory were put on hold after the city council approved a budget cut for the office.

The budget cut, approved by the city council last month, eliminates the positions of the office's two full-time employees, who had been working on a new driver's license office in the armory.

The new driver's license office, which was scheduled to open in the armory in June, will now be delayed until the city council approves additional funding to cover the positions of the two employees.

County voters approve notion of leasing Panola General

By Dathan McDaniel

Voters in Panola County have approved a resolution to lease Panola General Hospital to a private entity.

The resolution, which was passed unanimously by the county commission, allows the county to enter into a lease agreement with a private entity to manage and operate the hospital.

Gary voters OK school bond issue

By Scott Williams

Voters in Gary, Texas, have approved a bond issue to fund construction of a new school building.

The bond issue, which was approved by a majority of voters, will provide funding for the construction of a new school building to replace the current elementary school.

The new school building, which will be located on the same property as the current school, will be designed to accommodate an increased student population.

Third suspect arrested in burglary ring

By John Green

A third suspect has been arrested in connection with a burglary ring that has targeted several homes in the area.

The suspect, who was arrested last week, is accused of participating in a series of burglaries that have taken place in the past month.

New school trustees seated in Beckville

By Emily Brown

New trustees have been seated on the school board in Beckville, Texas, following a special election earlier this month.

The new trustees, who were elected by a majority of voters, will serve on the board for the next two years.

Moore thankful to be back in the saddle

By Emily Brown

Troy Moore, the new manager of Panola General Hospital, says he is thankful to be back in the saddle after recovering from a severe accident.

Moore, who was injured in a car crash last month, says he is grateful for the support of his family and friends during his recovery.

"I'm really grateful for all the support I've received," Moore said. "I couldn't have made it through without the love and encouragement of my family and friends."
Six plead guilty to felony charges

DAN DAVIS

Six people pleaded guilty last week to felony charges in connection with a large-scale marijuana distribution operation. The plea agreement, which was reached in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, resulted in the defendants entering pleas to one count of conspiracy to distribute marijuana and one count of possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime.

The defendants, who were indicted on these charges in December 2021, admitted that they conspired to distribute marijuana and possessed firearms in connection with the sale of the drug. The charges carry a potential sentence of up to 20 years in federal prison for each defendant.

The case is being prosecuted by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Missouri, with the assistance of the Missouri State Highway Patrol and the St. Louis County Police Department.
