Tip leads to arrest of six women on drug charges

Six women have been arrested on drug charges following a tip leading to an illegal drug store in a rural area of the county.

According to district attorney Bob Williams, the tip was received by his office and followed up by a raid of the property. The women arrested were charged with possession of illegal drugs and a search warrant was obtained.

Christian cycle club collects donations for Samaritan House

The Christian cycle club has started a donation drive for the Samaritan House, a local charity that provides assistance to those in need.

May 14 blood drive set at nursing home

A blood drive will be held at the local nursing home on May 14th. The drive is open to all individuals and will provide much-needed donations to the hospital.

Shriners set date for annual donation drive

The Shriners have announced the date for their annual donation drive. This event is an opportunity for donations to help support the Shriners' work in providing medical care to children.
Ponies open tourney against San Jac

Grabbs is co-MVP; Schumacher sets a vote

Four Ponies chosen among TEAC elite

Beckville in playoffs on May 15

Classified
Ads,
Sports,
Weddings,
Police
News,
Area
News,
First
Federal
Chairman
Local schools make a difference

Another strong point for Panola County's economy is its excellent school systems. The school district is the eighth largest in the state and the county. Carthage, Elizabethtown, and New London are three of the four school districts. In addition, the three districts serve a large geographic area.

Carthage, the largest of the three districts, is served by Carthage-Elizabethtown High School. The school houses grades 9 through 12. The school has an enrollment of 2,500 students. The school is located on North Avenue Street. The school was built in 1925.

The school district is comprised of four schools: Carthage High School, Elizabethtown High School, New London High School, and Panola Junior High School. The schools have a combined enrollment of 6,000 students. The school district is located in the city of Carthage, Elizabethtown, and New London.

Carthage-Elizabethtown High School is located on North Avenue Street in the center of the city. The school was built in 1925. The school has an enrollment of 2,500 students. The school is located in the center of the city. The school has a combined enrollment of 6,000 students.

Advance planning will make moving easy

Citing rising fuel prices and the increasing cost of doing business, the Panola County Chamber of Commerce is urging businesses to prepare for a move to another state. The Chamber has been working with business leaders in the area to develop a plan for a move to another state.

Utility rates in the city of Carthage are among the lowest in the state. The Chamber is urging businesses to consider moving to another state. The Chamber is also working with the city government to develop a plan for a move to another state.

Panola County Chamber of Commerce Welcomes You

We invite you to call or come by for information about Panola County.

P. O. Box 400
693-3868

693-6634
Panola County presents a rich and colorful history housed in museums

Panola County offers a rich and colorful history that is housed in museums throughout the area. The Carthage Museum, located in the historic train station, is a great place to start your exploration. The museum showcases the history of Carthage and Panola County, including its role in the Civil War and the oil boom.

The Old Panola County Jail, now a museum, offers a glimpse into the history of law and justice in the region. The jail was in operation from 1895 to 1976 and is one of the oldest jails in the state of Texas. Inside, you can see cells, a Connor cell, and a law library.

The Panola County Historical Society, located in the town square, is another great place to learn about the history of Panola County. The society offers tours of historic buildings and artifacts that tell the story of the county's past.

In addition to these museums, there are several other historical sites and landmarks throughout the county that offer a glimpse into the past. The Panola County Museum of Art, located in the former Panola County Courthouse, features rotating exhibits of local and regional art.

Visit these museums and others to learn more about the rich history of Panola County.
Tex Ritter Museum offers insight into talented son of Panola County

Chamber of commerce works to help business, social climate
Sammy Brown Library plays important role in community

Since 1954, Sammy Brown Library has been a vital resource for residents of the area. The library is located at 527 West College and offers a wide range of books and materials for children and adults. It is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday and Saturday.

The library is also home to several community events, including a monthly book club and a monthly cooking class. In addition, the library offers tutoring services for students in grades K-12.

Lake Murvaul one of county's greatest recreation attractions

Lake Murvaul is one of the most popular recreation areas in the county. It is located on the western edge of the county, just south of Lake Tamahome. The lake is known for its beautiful scenery and its abundant wildlife.

The lake is open to fishing year-round, and anglers can expect to catch bass, crappie, and catfish. The lake also provides excellent opportunities for boating, swimming, and water sports.

The lake is accessible by car, and there are several boat ramps and parking areas available. The lake is also home to several camping and picnic areas.

The lake is a popular destination for families and groups of all ages. It is a great place to spend a day outdoors, and it is sure to provide hours of fun and enjoyment for everyone.

The Panola Watchman

Panola County's News Source

Call 693-7888 to subscribe!

ALL NEWCOMERS AND VISITORS
FROM LEAVES TO BOOTS
EASY TO MEET...
ACCESSORIES & JEWELRY
NEW, LADIES, CHILDREN
FIND IT ALL HERE!

EAT TO MEET...

BOOT WEAR
SCOOTIN

First United Methodist Church
105 S. Shelby St.
“on the square”
693-8888

See PAGE 10
YOU ARE MOST WELCOME TO COME VISIT

AND WORSHIP AT THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE

Car-Tex Transport & Vacuum Service
Welcomes Visitors and Newcomers to Carthage and Panola County

Moving To Town?
Be sure to keep up with the current events in Carthage and Panola County by subscribing to The Panola Watchman today! Don’t miss one issue!

The Panola Watchman
109 W. Panola, Carthage, Texas (903) 693-7888