The PANOLA WATCHMAN

A Panola County man was arrested on charges of kidnapping and assault after allegations arose that he kidnapped and assaulted his estranged wife.

The man, identified as John Smith, was arrested early Wednesday morning after witnesses observed him in the area. According to the police report, Smith and his estranged wife had been involved in a heated argument earlier in the week, which escalated into a physical altercation.

The estranged wife was reported to have been kidnapped and taken to a remote location. She was later found safe after neighbors heard her screaming for help.
