Panola County Devotional Page

Trouble Right Here in River City
by Rev. Larry Tefert, pastor of St. Paul Presbyterian

Although we have a belief in "a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens," we of the Panola County ministerial alliance want to improve the places in which we all live. In that, we believe in downtown Texarkana. During this holiday season, a family may not own an apostrophe for six months to the expectation of buying a house, they do not spend a lot decorating the place they will live in. Most do not take the time to clean the bad spots—a simple place of dirt and mud is enough for these homes.

Compounded to this, a lifetime is short—proportionately shorter than a ball game in comparison to the same life. Since this is so, we should spend more time in houses that make our staying up times longer than looking after our neighbors. We can go through our day without term limits, and the world is a better place when we all show up.

Some will argue that our hopes for the community can be made for the poor. But, if I can say one thing, however small against this, it is a closer look at the child's face. If it is true that the world is the"..."
