The PANOLA MATCHAN

Garbage containers' owners are among the local businesses who oppose the proposal.

"These people try to come in and get us感情低落 or money, and they'd be better off doing something else," one of them said.

"We've been in this business for 15 years, and we're getting tired of it. We're just trying to do our job without getting into any trouble.

The store owner also complained about the number of people who are using the containers, saying that it is making it difficult for him to do his job.

"We've got people coming into the store all the time, and they're not paying attention to what's going on.

Road and bridge employee retiring in style

By Tony Cage

Levi had retired from the role of a city employee last year.

"I'm really happy with the decision, and I'm looking forward to spending more time with my family," said Levi.

Levi was one of several city employees who had retired in the past year, and the city has been preparing for their departures.

"We're happy to welcome them back, and we're glad to see them enjoying their retirement," said the city manager.

Caroline, dear home

"It's been great to have Levi around, and we wish him all the best in his future endeavors," said the city manager.
Ride For Life travels the U.S.

A group of bikes is racing down a road. The scene is action-packed, with cyclists stretching their legs on a peaceful morning. The road is wide and clear, lined with trees and bushes. The sky is bright and blue, with a few white clouds scattered across it. The cyclists are wearing helmets and sunglasses, and their bikes have water bottles attached to them. The road is made of smooth asphalt, and the cyclists are moving at a steady pace. The sun is shining down on them, casting a warm glow on their faces. The sound of the wind rushing past their ears is all that can be heard. The cyclists continue to ride, enjoying the beautiful scenery around them.

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES

Hello everyone. I hope you are all enjoying this nice cool weather as much as I am. I hope we will last for a while, but I heard it was going to get very cold.

If my little hummingbird knew everything about it, she is not real, I would not see them for a couple of weeks. You don't have to take it from me to tell me, they will.

Our community would probably be on Ben, Pinnock and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis. It is the last of October and it is my time. It is my time again. It is my time to do it. It is my time to do it again.

The only thing that has changed is that I am now a member of the Pottos in the State of Georgia Assembly and I am proud of it.

They are just beautiful.

Florida Newton, Darla Hines and Anna Shular made a trip to Milwaukee and Milwaukee throughout the week. They had a very nice trip. They are planning to return the next week. They are planning to return the next week. They are planning to return the next week.
