Area veterans met at the traditional time of 11 a.m. on the 11th of November for a ceremony that honors and remembers those who have served in the Armed Forces.

"We are here today to honor the brave men and women who have served our country, and we must never forget to thank them for their service," said Army veteran Jim Brown, from the American Legion.

The ceremony began with a reading of the names of those who served, followed by a moment of silence. The National Anthem was sung by local high school choir, and the flag was raised by a twelve-member color guard from the local high school.

In his closing remarks, Mayor Arthur Johnson thanked the veterans for their service and assured them of the city's continued support.

City carrege by reading for tax rebate

Carthage is planning to use the money from the recent tax rebate to improve city services and facilities.

"The city received a tax rebate of $1,235,000, which will be used to improve the city's infrastructure and provide services to the residents," said City Manager Ben Thompson.

The money will be used to repair roads, upgrade the water and sewer systems, and improve city parks.

"This rebate is a great opportunity for us to make improvements to the city and enhance the quality of life for our residents," said Thompson.

In addition to the tax rebate, the city is also planning to improve the city's public transportation system by purchasing new buses.

"We are committed to improving the city's public transportation system to make it more convenient for residents," said Thompson.

The city is also planning to improve the city's recreational facilities by building a new pool and renovating the existing park.

"We are committed to providing our residents with quality recreational facilities," said Thompson.

Overall, the city is planning to use the tax rebate to improve the city's infrastructure and provide services to the residents.

"We are committed to making Carthage a better place for our residents," said Thompson.

Food drive successful

The Panola County Extension Office's annual food drive was a success, with nearly 2000 pounds of food collected.

"The food drive was a great success, and we are grateful to everyone who donated food," said Extension Agent Janice Johnson.

The food collected will be used to help feed local families in need.

"We are committed to making sure that everyone in our community has access to healthy food," said Johnson.

Vaccinations available for flu, child diseases

With the start of winter, the weather is getting colder and flu season is upon us. It’s important to protect yourself and your children by getting vaccinated. The Polk County Public Health Department offers flu vaccines for all ages. The vaccines are available at local clinics and pharmacies. It is recommended that everyone, especially children, get vaccinated to prevent the spread of flu. The flu can be serious, especially for young children, pregnant women, and people with certain health conditions. The flu vaccine is an effective way to prevent flu and its complications.

Beckville plans Christmas parade

Beckville is planning a Christmas parade this year! The parade is scheduled for December 10th at 3 PM. The theme for this year’s parade is “Wintertime Fun.” The parade route will begin at the Beckville City Hall and proceed through the downtown area before finishing at the Beckville Chamber of Commerce. The parade will feature floats, live music, and of course, Santa Claus will make an appearance! It’s a great opportunity to get into the holiday spirit and support the local businesses.

WINTERIZE NOW TO PREVENT PROBLEMS LATER

Winter is approaching, and it’s time to prepare your property for the cold weather. Here are some tips to winterize your home and garden:

1. Insulate your home: Check your insulation levels and ensure that your attic, crawl spaces, and walls are well-insulated.

2. Protect your pipes: Wrap your outdoor pipes with insulation to prevent freezing and bursting.

3. Keep your heating system in good condition: Have your heating system checked by a professional to ensure it’s running efficiently.

4. Protect your plants: If you have tender plants, cover them with a frost cloth or move them indoors.

Prepare now to avoid costly repairs later! Happy holiday season!

Drama group forms at Panola

Two潘ola College students are the starring actors in a new drama group. The group, which has been formed under the guidance of Professor B. C. Thomas, consists of students from various academic disciplines. The group has been meeting regularly to rehearse for their upcoming production.

The drama group is planning to perform a play that will be directed by Professor Thomas. The play will focus on contemporary themes and will be presented in the Panola College auditorium. The group is hopeful that the play will receive a positive reception from the student body and the community at large.

The drama group is open to all students, and members are encouraged to participate in the rehearsals and performances. The group meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4 pm to 6 pm in the Panola College auditorium.

The drama group is also planning to perform at the Texas Drama Association Conference in January 2023. The group is excited about the opportunity to showcase their talents and skills on a larger stage.
