UFP thefts resolved, three jailed

By Sherry Koone

The PANOLA Watchman

Two Panola County men and another from Quitman County are being held in two separate counties in connection with the theft of steel pipe and fittings and other equipment from three new U.S. Postal Service plants.

All three suspects were apprehended and charged in connection with the thefts, which occurred at the U.S. Postal Service plant at Carthage, the Plant 49 and the Plant 48, both located in Panola County.

At the time of the arrests, the suspects were seen leaving the Caruthersville, Mo., plant carrying what appeared to be one of the nationally recognized forensic laboratories.

The suspects were identified as:

- Robert E. Johnson, 32, of Panola County, who was charged with possession of stolen property.
- William EdwardSmith, 40, of Panola County, who was charged with theft of property.
- Joseph Lee Maben, 33, of Quitman County, who was charged with possession of stolen property.

All three suspects are expected to appear in court this afternoon to enter pleas to the charges.

The investigation is continuing, and it is believed that additional suspects may be identified and apprehended.

Local schools win grants

By Teresa Cagle

The PANOLA Watchman

"Three local school districts will receive funds to provide "peace" to their students," said a representative of the Peace Foundation.

The grant awards are part of the nationwide initiative to promote peace education in schools.

The districts receiving the grants are:

- Caruthersville School District
- Jonesboro School District
- Sikeston School District

The funds will be used to purchase materials and resources to support peace education programs in the schools.

The Peace Foundation is a non-profit organization that aims to promote global peace through education and training. The foundation has been active in promoting peace education in schools for over 20 years.

The grant program is part of the foundation's ongoing efforts to support schools in their efforts to promote peace and understanding among students.

CISD considers possible bond

By Teresa Cagle

The PANOLA Watchman

"College Independent School District officials have begun exploring the possibility of a bond issue to provide additional funding for the construction of new facilities," said a district spokesperson.

The spokesperson said that the district has been working with architects and engineers to develop plans for new buildings and facilities.

The new facilities will include new classrooms, a new athletic facility, and a new gymnasium.

The district is currently in the process of determining the amount of funds needed for the bond issue.

DPS trooper found not guilty

By Sherry Koone

The PANOLA Watchman

A DPS trooper was acquitted of all charges in the shooting death of a civilian.

The trooper was found not guilty after a jury deliberated for hours.

The case involved a deputy who was killed during a traffic stop.

The jury found that the trooper had reasonable cause to believe that the civilian was armed and posed a threat.

The case was considered a complex one, involving issues of police brutality and use of force.

The district attorney said that the decision was a difficult one, but the jury's verdict reflected the evidence presented during the trial.

Grafton to run for county clerk re-election

Ted Grafton

I am a candidate for county clerk once again. Having served two terms as county clerk, I am running for a third term. In my role as county clerk, I have been responsible for managing the county's financial affairs, ensuring the smooth functioning of county government, and providing essential services to the community. I have also been an advocate for transparency and accountability in government, and I believe that my experience and dedication to public service make me the best choice for this important position.

If elected, I will continue to work tirelessly to serve the citizens of this county. I will be committed to improving the efficiency and effectiveness of our government operations, ensuring that our resources are used in the best possible way. I will also be dedicated to protecting the interests of the people we serve, and I will work to ensure that our government remains accountable to the citizens of this county.

I urge you to cast your vote for me, Ted Grafton, in the upcoming election. I am confident that I have the skills and experience necessary to serve our county well, and I am committed to doing so with integrity and dedication.

Ted Grafton
