Bailey announces candidacy for county court-at-law

Larry and Nancy Bailey have announced their intention to seek the office of county court-at-law. They said they believe in the county's future and that the time is right for change.

"Larry and I believe in the county's future and that the time is right for change," Mrs. Bailey said. "We have lived in the county for many years and have seen the growth and progress. We believe that the county court-at-law can play a vital role in ensuring that the county's needs are met in a timely and efficient manner.

The Bailey's have been involved in numerous community activities and have a proven track record of service. Mrs. Bailey is a member of the local chamber of commerce and has served on the board of directors for the county's youth advisory council. Mr. Bailey is a retired teacher and has been involved in several youth organizations.

"We are running because we believe in the county and we believe that the county court-at-law can make a difference," Mr. Bailey said. "We believe that the county court-at-law can provide a fresh perspective and make changes that will benefit all citizens of the county.

The Bailey's are asking for the support of the county's citizens in their bid for the office of county court-at-law. They are available for interviews and would like to meet with as many people as possible.

"We are available for interviews and would like to meet with as many people as possible," Mrs. Bailey said. "We believe that we have the qualities and experience needed to serve the county well."

OUR READERS WRITE

Dear Editor,

I recently re-read a book that I hadn't picked up in years. It was a classic novel that I enjoyed a lot back then. I was surprised to see how much I still enjoyed it. I think it's a great book and I recommend it to anyone who hasn't read it yet.

Sincerely,
