Unlimited engagement planned

Titanic unsinkable at theater

By Sherry Krouse
THE PANOLA WATCHMAN

Movie-goers in Carthage are looking forward to one of the most anticipated events of the year, the release of "Titanic." The film has already broken box office records, and the anticipation among movie fans is building.

The movie, directed by James Cameron, tells the story of the ill-fated RMS Titanic and its tragic sinking in 1912. The film stars Leonardo DiCaprio as Jack Dawson and Kate Winslet as Rose DeWitt Bukater.

Since its first showing in theaters, the movie has been packed with fans eager to see the story unfold. The film's success can be attributed to its stunning visuals, emotional storytelling, and the incredible performances of the cast.

Titanic Unborn: Before the Unsinkable Ship

By John L. Stetson
THE PANOLA WATCHMAN

The story of the Titanic begins long before the ship ever set sail. It's the tale of a man named John Fury, a former British Arctic explorer who was hired by the White Star Line to lead the Titanic on its maiden voyage to New York.

Fury was a brilliant navigator, but he was also a man with secrets. He had been involved in a series of mysterious disappearances in the Arctic, and his past was catching up with him.

As the Titanic sets sail, John Fury must confront his past and his destiny. Will he be able to keep the ship afloat, or will his secrets lead to disaster?

Water supply system earns local support

By Teresa Cage
THE PANOLA WATCHMAN

A meeting was held Thursday night in Carthage to discuss the proposed water supply system for the area. The meeting was attended by local residents, representatives from the Panola County Water Authority, and officials from the Texas Water Commission.

The proposed system would provide clean water to the residents of the area, and would help to ensure that the quality of water remains high.

Speeding cited in two wrecks

By Teresa Cage
THE PANOLA WATCHMAN

A motorcyclist and a pedestrian were cited for speeding after two wrecks on Thursday.

In the first wreck, a motorcyclist was cited for speeding on South Main Street in Carthage. According to police, the motorcyclist was traveling at a high rate of speed and failed to yield to oncoming traffic.

In the second wreck, a pedestrian was cited for speeding on East Main Street in Carthage. The pedestrian was walking across the street when they were hit by a car.

The wrecks highlight the importance of obeying speed limits and yielding to pedestrians in order to prevent accidents.

Water-Mall evacuates April Fool's Day

Bom threat no joke

By Teresa Cage
THE PANOLA WATCHMAN

A bomb threat was called into Wal-Mart on Thursday afternoon, causing the store to evacuate.

According to police, a man called in a bomb threat to Wal-Mart, stating that there were "two bombs" on the premises.

The store was evacuated as a precautionary measure, and police arrived on the scene to conduct a thorough search.

It was later determined that the threat was a prank, and the individual who made the call was arrested.

The incident serves as a reminder to all residents to take emergency situations seriously and to report any suspicious activity immediately.
Walker honored with highest award

Carolyn C. Walker, chairman of the board of the United Way of the Tri-County Area, was honored Sunday with the United Way's highest award.

She received the award Sunday night during a banquet at the Carthage High School auditorium. The award, presented to Walker by United Way Executive Director John Lindsey, is given to someone who has made a significant contribution to the organization.

Lindsey said Walker has been a leader in the United Way for many years and has contributed to the organization's success.

Carthage students ready for lift-off

Carthage High School seniors will get a head start on life as they attend a weekend workshop prepared by the United Way of the Tri-County Area.

The workshop, which will be held Feb. 14-15, is designed to help students make the transition from high school to college or the workforce.

Students will have the opportunity to participate in activities such as resume writing, interview techniques, and time management.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The City of Carthage is currently making plans to apply to the Texas Department of Transportation for a transportation project under the Texas Community Development Program.

The project, which is expected to cost approximately $1 million, will be located in the downtown area of Carthage.
